Private Dispute Resolution in International Business consists of two books and an interactive DVD Rom. Volume I follows the progress of a dispute between two companies in step by step detail through negotiation, mediation and arbitration; in turn Volume II provides precise informed solutions to the problems raised in the first volume's case study. The DVD Rom contains not only all contracts and other written documentation produced during the dispute including all procedural orders and awards rendered by the arbitral tribunal during the arbitration, the text of legal materials such as arbitration laws and rules and international conventions and further learning and teaching aids but also almost 100 videos dramatising the negotiation, mediation and arbitration proceedings described in the books conducted by highly experienced practitioners active in the field of international dispute resolution. Subtitles in the videos refer the viewer to paragraphs in the books where each relevant legal problem is analysed. In addition an internet home page provides regular updates. To summarise, The Case Study Volume I provides a realistic and highly practical approach to learning and teaching the law and practice of private dispute resolution in international business. The Handbook Volume II provides a comprehensive comparative study of the law of international dispute resolution. The DVD Rom allows for a highly innovative interactive teaching and learning experience and provides a comprehensive collection of arbitration rules and other documentary material. The videos on the DVD Rom clearly manifest the soft skills and advocacy skills required to successfully resolve international business disputes including the unique opportunity to draw on screen comparisons between the negotiation, mediation and arbitration methods.
