Literary Analysis Sketchnote

Digitized by srujanika@gmail.com

Point of view refers to the narrative method selected in literary texts. "Deadly" is told from the first-person-past point of view, which represents the protagonist as a character in their story and participates in the story's action. First-person protagonist's thoughts are immediately tied to the protagonist and usually focus on the reader's identification with the protagonist's situation. "Deadly" is a passage from "Deadly" that uses a protagonist's narration about the main events of the short, showing the passage from a third-person point of view (protagonist's thoughts and reactions).
