Abigail Makes Peace Activities:

Dynamics of Life Patricia Tuaweri, 2012-08-28 LIFE IS A JOURNEY AND EVERYBODY BORN INTO THIS EARTH EMBARKS ON THIS JOURNEY CALLED LIFE EVERY JOURNEY HAS A PURPOSE AND A DESTINATION However between the beginning point of the journey and the end we pass through a lot of places see a lot of things and meet a lot of people that try to abort this journey Some people keep going in spite of what they see hear or experience while others get overwhelmed discouraged and sometimes confused thereby aborting their journey midway You do not need to make any place your permanent destination Let go and keep moving until you get to your ultimate destination and achieve your purpose in life

The Role of Women in Making and Building Peace in Liberia Anne, 2014-04-15 In the early 2000s Liberian women wearing wrap skirts and white T shirts shouting We want peace no more war attracted international attention After almost fifteen years of civil war the enduring active multifaceted and non violent campaigning for peace by women s organisations contributed to the end of the fighting and the signing of a peace agreement between the warring factions Although it is widely assumed that women s inclusion in peace processes yields greater attention to women s issues and needs in the aftermath of a conflict this is only partly the case in Liberia Thus this analysis looks beyond the extraordinary commitment by women in Liberia and deals with the questions to what extent their role in the peace process has contributed to gender sensitive outcomes in post conflict Liberian society and why greater gender sensitivity was not achieved By focusing on manifestations of patterns of masculinity in the public and private spheres Anne Theobald identifies factors at different levels of analysis within different time frames that elucidate the unexpected outcome Not only does this provide for a more encompassing understanding of dynamics of gender relations and context specific variables impeding gender sensitivity in post conflict settings but it also helps to refine prevailing theoretical approaches on gender in peacemaking and peacebuilding and to develop more holistic context specific and efficient policy approaches which can effectively lead to gender sensitive peace documentation of the birth and development of Standing Together a mixed gender peace movement and Women Wage Peace a women s peace movement It explores the meaning of hope for Israeli peace activists and shows the concrete efforts that both movements undertake to trigger hope as part of an intersectional peace politics and of a non partisan women s peace politics respectively The book also engages with the post October 2023 developments in the Middle East showing how both peace movements now followed by others in the Israeli peace camp continue to invest in their politics of hope amid devastation fatigue and fear Offering a gendered typology of hope related emotion work useful beyond the cases at hand the book proposes that collective hope based action combined with other emotions might be powerful in all contexts of despair and protracted conflicts This book will be of interest to students of peace and conflict studies social and peace movements gender studies non violent resistance international relations and Israel Palestine Middle East
