Indigenous Education Nina Burridge,Frances Whalan,Karen Vaughan,2012-12-23 Education is an essential pathway to bridging the divide in educational attainment between Indigenous and non Indigenous students In the Australian policy contexts Indigenous Education has been informed by a large number of reviews reports and an extensive list of projects aimed at improving educational outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children Central to each has been the investigation of the inequity of access to educational resources the legacy of historical policies of exclusion and the lack of culturally responsive pedagogical practices that impact on Indigenous student achievement at school Research on best practice models for teaching Indigenous students points to the level of teachers commitment being a crucial link to student engagement in the classroom improvement of student self concept and student retention rates Most recently the Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership AITSL has recognized in the National Professional Standards for Teachers that practising teachers must attain skills in working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and their communities Clearly it is time for new pedagogical practices in Indigenous education that are implemented in partnerships with local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities This book reports on a three year research based study of action learning in schools that sought to enhance engagement with local Aboriginal communities promote quality teaching and improve students learning outcomes The school studies come from different demographic regions in New South Wales Australia s most populous state and showcase the achievements and challenges highs and lows affordances and obstacles in the development and delivery of innovative curriculum strategies for teaching Aboriginal histories and cultures in Australian schools The findings illustrate that engaging teachers in a learning journey in collaboration with academic partners andmembers of local Aboriginal communities in an action learning process can deliver innovative teaching programs over a sustained period of time As a result schools demonstrated that these approaches do produce positive educational outcomes for teachers and students and enable authentic partnerships with Aboriginal communities Resources in Education ,1994

Aboriginal Art Collections Susan Cochrane,2001 Aboriginal art collections highlights from Australia s public museums and galleries is a survey of the indigenous collections of fourteen public museums and galleries in Australia Tiwi Textiles Diana Wood Conroy,Bede Tungutalum,2022-12-01 Tiwi Textiles Design Making Process tells the story of the innovative Tiwi Design centre on Bathurst Island in northern Australia dedicated to the production of hand printed fabrics featuring Indigenous designs from the 1970s to today Written by early art coordinator Diana Wood Conroy with oral testimony from senior Tiwi artist Bede Tungutalum who established Tiwi Design in 1969 with fellow designer Giovanni Tipungwuti the book traces the beginnings of the centre and its subsequent place in the Tiwi community and Australian Indigenous culture more broadly Bringing together many voices and images especially those of little known older artists of Paru and Wurrumiyanga formerly Nguui on the Tiwi Islands and from the Indigenous literature Tiwi Textiles features profiles of Tiwi artists accounts of the development of new design processes insights into Tiwi culture and language and personal reflections on the significance of Tiwi Design which is still proudly operating today Tiwi Textiles is a unique historical document a formidable vindication of the accomplishments of great Indigenous artists and an account of a missing chapter in world art history The book is a wonderful chronicle of a vital and fertile period for Tiwi practice in the emergence of contemporary Indigenous art But it is also a charter for the future Nicholas Thomas FBA FAHA Director Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology University of Cambridge Wood Conroy not only writes intricately and sensitively a vital history of Tiwi art she also firms up the place of fibre and textiles practices in Indigenous art and leaves space for us to consider how art history can shift to become more responsive to the lived realities of Indigenous peoples and our non Indigenous accomplices Tristen Harwood
