Research Paper , 1962 Lincoln: The Fire of Genius David J. Kent, 2022-09-01 Abraham Lincoln had a lifelong fascination with science and technology a fascination that would help institutionalize science win the Civil War and propel the nation into the modern age Readers will learn through Lincoln The Fire of Genius how science and technology gradually infiltrated Lincoln s remarkable life and influenced his growing desire to improve the condition of all men The book traces this progression from a simple farm boy to a president who changed the world Counter to conventional wisdom subsistence farming provides a considerable education in agronomic science forest ecology hydrology and even a little civil engineering Continuing through a lifetime of self study curiosity and hard work Lincoln became the only President with a patent advocated for technological advancement as a legislator in Illinois and in Washington and became the go to western lawyer on technology and patent cases during his legal career During the Civil War Lincoln drew upon his commitment to science and personally encouraged inventors while taking dramatic steps to institutionalize science via the Smithsonian Institution create the National Academy of Sciences and initiate the Department of Agriculture Lincoln s insistence on high tech weaponry balloon surveillance strategic use of telegraphy and railroad deployment positioned the North to achieve Union victory Lincoln Lore Louis Austin Warren, 1949 Bulletin of the Abraham Lincoln Association Abraham Lincoln

Association (Springfield, Ill.),1938 An Oral History of Abraham Lincoln Michael Burlingame,2006-01-24 John C Nicolay who had known Lincoln in Springfield Illinois served as chief White House secretary from 1861 to 1865 Trained as a journalist Nicolay had hoped to write a campaign biography of Lincoln in 1860 a desire that was thwarted when an obscure young writer named William Dean Howells got the job Years later however Nicolay fulfilled his ambition with John Hay he spent the years from 1872 to 1890 writing a monumental ten volume biography of Lincoln In preparation for this task Nicolay interviewed men who had known Lincoln both during his years in Springfield and later when he became the president of the United States When it came time to write their massive biography however Burlingame notes he and Hay made sparing use of the interviews because they had become skeptical about human memory Nicolay and Hay also feared that Robert Todd Lincoln might censor material that reflected poorly on Lincoln or his wife Nicolay had interviewed such Springfield friends as Lincoln s first two law partners John Todd Stuart and Stephen T Logan At the Illinois capital in June and July 1875 he talked to a number of others including Orville H Browning U S senator and Lincoln s close friend and adviser for over thirty five years and Ozias M Hatch Lincoln s political ally and Springfield neighbor Four years later he returned briefly and spoke with John W Bunn a young political insider from Springfield at the time Lincoln was elected president and once again with Hatch Browning shed new light on Lincoln s courtship and marriage telling Nicolay that Lincoln often told him that he was constantly under great apprehension lest his wife should do something which would bring him into disgrace while in the White House During their research Nicolay and Hay also learned of Lincoln s despondency and erratic behavior following his rejection by Matilda Edwards and they were subsequently criticized by friends for suppressing the information Burlingame argues that this open discussion of Lincoln s depression of January 1841 is perhaps the most startling new information in the Springfield interviews Briefer and more narrowly focused than the Springfield interviews the Washington interviews deal with the formation of Lincoln s cabinet his relations with Congress his behavior during the war his humor and his grief In a reminiscence by Robert Todd Lincoln for example we learn of Lincoln s despair at General Lee s escape after the Battle of Gettysburg I went into my father s office and found him in much distress his head leaning upon the desk in front of him and when he raised his head there were evidences of tears upon his face Upon my asking the cause of his distress he told me that he had just received the information that Gen Lee had succeeded in escaping across the Potomac river To supplement these interviews Burlingame has included Nicolay s unpublished essays on Lincoln during the 1860 campaign and on Lincoln s journey from Springfield to Washington in 1861 essay s based on firsthand testimony ABRAHAM LINCOLN: THE PRAIRIE YEARS AND THE WAR YEARS CARL SANDBURG,1954 Abraham Lincoln ,1954 The Life of Abraham Lincoln William Eleazar Barton,1925 The Life of Abraham Lincoln William E.
