Masculine Migrations Daniel Coleman, 1998-01-01 Examines the representation of masculinities in the work of some of Canada s most exciting writers including Michael Ondaatje and Rohinton Mistry to show how cross cultural migration disrupts assumed codes for masculine behaviour and practice Staging Masculinity Carla J. McDonough, 2006-07-19 The men in plays such as Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman or Sam Shepard's True West are often presented as universal little attention is given to the gender dynamics involved in the characters This work looks at how contemporary playwrights including Miller Shepard Eugene O'Neill David Mamet and August Wilson stage masculinity in their works It becomes apparent that male playwrights return often to the issues of troubled manhood usually masked in other issues such as war business or family The plays indicate both the attractiveness of the model of traditional masculinity and the illusive nature of this image which all too often fractures and fails the characters who pursue it O'Neill's play The Hairy Ape and the character Yank receive much attention A Necessary Fantasy? Dudley Jones, Tony Watkins, 2000 Contributors address from an array of critical perspectives the central issues of what constitutes heroism and the nature of the heroic figure in American Australian and British juvenile popular culture Eighteen scholars address topics like African American folk heroes good girls Robin Hood Biggles Action Man toys Dan Dare Peter Pan and Spider Man in essays referring to a wide range of cultural forms including film television comics periodicals books and toys Each reading is followed by a bibliography Jones's and Watkins's introduction to theories of the hero in kiddie lit should be fascinating reading for anyone once a kid Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

World underdevelopment Turning to home he analyzes the 1933 bombing of New York's World Trade Center in the ecological context of urban development that has made the city a capital both of global finance and of new immigrant cultures In a response to the bombing and environmental terrorism of the Gulf War Ross goes on to explore the ecology of images that characterized the media's role in that war's carnage and in the mounting collateral damage of the New World Order A fourth chapter discusses the much hyped men's movement as a response to debates among eco feminists The book concludes with a sweeping critique of the new world view being ushered in by geneticists and the biotechnology industry a philosophy of biological determinism that Ross describes as the Chicago gangster theory of life With his sharp eye for the crucial cultural phenomena of our times Ross's wary take on the contradictions of green politics is tempered by his commitment to dispel the ecology movement's public image as an anti libertarian politics that always says no and preaches self limitation rather than promising social fulfillment He sees an ecological future of public affluence and not voluntary poverty a world where nature is a participant in our social plans and not an authority locking us into some incontrovertible fate
