The first of these is the fact that the world is not a uniform whole. It is not a single entity, but a collection of many different parts. Each part has its own characteristics, its own history, its own culture. This is why we must study the world as it is, not as we wish it to be. We must not try to force it into a preconceived mold, but rather we must try to understand it as it really is. This is the only way to gain a true knowledge of the world, and this is the only way to be able to deal with it properly.
