Design Principles for Teaching Effective Writing Raquel Fidalgo Redondo, Karen Harris, Martine Braaksma, 2017-11-20 This volume presents effective instructional programs focused on two perspectives on writing the teaching and learning of writing as a skill and the use of writing as a learning activity in various school subjects or skills acquisition. It is focused on analysing micro design features of the programs such as learning activities supporting materials specific strategies instructional techniques but also macro design rules of intervention programs such as instructional sequence instructional stages based on research evidence provided for previous studies. This volume goes beyond a practical volume because it provides additional reflection and discussion about theoretical background and empirically based evidence which support the specific intervention programs described. Several chapters in this book include links to an Open Access e book where teacher and student materials for the authors instructional approaches can be found see ToC The Palgrave Handbook of Chinese Language Studies Zhengdao Ye, 2022-07-30 This new major reference work provides a comprehensive overview of linguistic phenomena in a variety of Sinitic languages in a global context highlighting the dynamic interaction between these languages and English. This living reference work offers a window into the linguistic sphere in China and beyond and showcases the latest research into diverse and evolving linguistic phenomena that have resulted from intensified interactions between the Sinophone world and other lingua spheres. The Handbook is divided into five sections. The chapters in Section I New Research Trends in Chinese Linguistic Research present fast growing research areas in Chinese linguistics particularly those undertaken by scholars based in China. Section II Interactions of Sinitic Languages focuses on language contact situations inside and outside China. The chapters in Section III Meaning Culture Translation explore the meanings of key cultural concepts and how ideas move between Chinese and English through translation across various genres. Section IV New Trends in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language covers new ideas and practices relating to teaching the Chinese language and culture. The final section Section V Transference from Chinese to English explores dynamic interactions between varieties of Chinese and varieties of English as they play out in multilingual sites and settings Teaching Language to Learners of Different Age Groups Hannah Pillay, 2012 Helping English Learners to Write Carol Booth Olson, Robin C.
