The iron lace that graces the businesses homes squares and cemeteries of Mobile Alabama is as vital a part of that southern port city as it is of New Orleans Charleston and Savannah. Until now its story has never been fully told. In this attractive volume John S Sledge s rich narrative combined with evocative historic images and Sheila Hagler s stunning contemporary photographs eloquently conveys as never before how ornamental cast iron defines Mobile s heart and soul. Cast iron was the wonder of the Victorian age according to Sledge. In Mobile the material s diverse applications were on display in hulking locomotives and boilers flamboyant fountains imposing fences and endless other forms and structures. The city s ornate iron balconies dozens of which still remain elicited the greatest wonder then as now. Local publications have long extolled Mobile s enchanting ironwork. Only now however has the subject been situated within national trends in design industry and consumer tastes. It is a colorful saga featuring rawboned iron founders artisan slaves hustling salesmen conniving architects willful plunderers romantic artists and dedicated preservationists. Drawing on rare surviving business records and other archival sources Sledge skillfully reconstructs how the local iron industry developed and then fiercely competed with big northern foundries. As a working preservationist Sledge pays particular attention to how many of Mobile s most splendid ornamental iron pieces have weathered hard times natural disasters and misguided development to remain a delight for tourists and residents alike. Hagler s beautiful photographs provide a powerful and sometimes moody visual accompaniment to this fascinating tale The Insiders' Guide to Mississippi Sylvia Higginbotham, Lisa Monti, 1995 Guide to American Directories , 1982 Ex-Centric Souths Urszula

Niewiadomska-Flis,2020-02-04 Ex Centric Souths Re Imagining Southern Centers and Peripheries adds a voice in ongoing attempts to chart new routes and to decenter the South in many ways in the hope of exploring Southern identity and multiple Souths The articles collected in this volume bring to the forefront the translocal and transnational connections and relationships between the South and the circum Caribbean region they address the changing nature of Southernness and especially its sense of place and finally they investigate the potential of various texts to narrate and revisit regional concerns Some contributions hold up to view topics ignored and marginalized while other decontextualize themes and issues central to Southern studies by telling alternative histories
