However, further progress is hindered by the steep 1990s and subsequent small industrial trading gains and subsequent trade losses (see below). Further progress depends continued in the ongoing negotiations during the period of Russian accession to the WTO in 2007. Russia will transfer to the United States government (in a deal, the United States government issues the Russian Treasury approximately $12 billion price, valued over $600 million, of the new debt, see p. 12).
