Compass - Manual for Human Rights Education with Young People (2012 edition - fully revised and updated)

Council of Europe, Collectif, 2015-06-01 Human rights cannot be defended by legal measures alone. They need to be protected and safeguarded by everyone including young people. Human rights are best respected and appreciated when we know them, stand up for them and apply them in our lives. COMPASS provides youth leaders, teachers and facilitators of human rights education activities whether professionals or volunteers with concrete ideas and practical activities to engage, involve and motivate young people in living, learning and acting for human rights. It promotes a comprehensive perspective on human rights education and sees young people as actors for a culture of universal human rights. COMPASS was originally published in 2002 and is now available in more than 30 languages. A version specifically designed for human rights education with children, COMPASITO, enjoys a similar success. This fully revised and updated edition includes new activities and information about human rights issues such as disability and ableism, migration, religion, remembrance, war and terrorism. COMPASS is a practical tool and resource for citizenship and human rights education. It is an essential companion for all those who are curious and interested in making the right to human rights education a reality for everyone.

Issued directly from the AICPA, this authoritative guidance is essential to fully understand the requirements associated with an audit. This edition includes the following new standards: SAS No 134 Auditor Reporting and Amendments Including Amendments Addressing Disclosures in the Audit of Financial Statements; SAS No 135 Omnibus Statement on Auditing Standards 2019. SAS No 134 is a suite of auditor reporting standards that includes a new AU C section 701 Communicating Key Audit Matters in the Independent Auditor's Report and replaces AU C sections 700, 705 and 706. SAS No 134 which also amends various other AU C sections addresses the auditor's responsibility to form an opinion on the financial statements and the form and content of the auditor's report issued because of an audit of financial statements. It also addresses the auditor's responsibilities and the form and content of the auditor's report when the auditor concludes that a modification to the auditor's opinion on the financial statements is necessary and when additional communications are necessary in the auditor's report SAS No 135 is intended to more closely align ASB guidance with the PCAOB's standards by primarily amending AU C section 260 Communications With Those Charged With Governance AU C section 550 Related Parties and AU C section 240 Consideration of Fraud in a Financial Statement Audit This codification is fully indexed and arranged by subject The codified standards and related interpretations are vital to practitioners performing audits Australian Aboriginal Studies, 2005 Access, 2008 LA Record, 1995
