Favourite of Fortune Andrew Bond,Frank Cowin,2021-07-31 The Royal Navy of Nelson s time was not short of heroes nor of outstanding achievements but even in this crowded field the career of Captain John Quilliam stands out so often the right man in the right place at the right time he was justly described by a contemporary as the favourite of fortune Born on the Isle of Man 250 years ago Quilliam has until now evaded detailed study of his extraordinary life Indeed while celebrated as a Manx hero in the wider world beyond the Island one of the most important men on the quarter deck of HMS Victory at the Battle of Trafalgar remains largely unrecognised Trafalgar however was not even the high point of Quilliam s professional journey From the lowest rung of the ladder in the dockyard at Portsmouth he climbed to become Victory s First Lieutenant having already survived two of the bloodiest sea battles of the era at Camperdown and Copenhagen In the process he won a share in undreamed of wealth through the seizure of one of the largest hauls of Spanish gold ever taken by the Georgian navy Promoted Post Captain Quilliam reached the apogee of his profession commanding frigates in the Baltic and on the Newfoundland station in the War of 1812 There in a bizarre twist worthy of a novel by O Brian or Forester he defeated an accusation of shirking an engagement with the American super frigate President in a Court Martial brought by his own First Lieutenant This first full biography of a far from ordinary naval officer is itself an unusual collaboration between three writers each interested in different aspects of Quilliam s career but united by a belief that it deserves a wider audience

The Job To Be Done Clint L. Coffey,2023-01-12 A unique blend of historical narrative and personal memoir this is the powerful true story of seven young men including the author s father who served in Bomber Command in World War Two Based on a pilot's logbook and years of research this beautifully crafted historical exploration follows the young airmen through training and then vividly relates their experiences in almost sixty combat operations against targets in Germany and France The story of their lives after returning home including the burdens they carried with them is told with empathy and compassion The Job To Be Done is a compelling combination of original WW2 records and historical fact with thoughtful analysis and insights Using unique maps photographs logbook pages and interviews and anecdotes it crafts a deeply personal story that will resonate with fans of both military history and memoir The Job To Be Done is a heartfelt tribute and a uniquely rewarding reading experience

In the summer of 1773 the 14 year old Horatio Nelson took part in an expedition to the Arctic which came close to ending his naval career before it had begun The expedition was to find a navigable northern passage between the Atlantic and Pacific and was supported by the Royal Society and King George III Two bomb vessels HMS Racehorse and Carcass were fitted out and strengthened under the command of Captain Hon Constantine Phipps It was an extremely cold Arctic summer and the ships became locked in ice far from Spitzbergen and were unable to cut their way out until days later when the wind changed and the ice broke up The ships were extricated and returned home On the trip the young Nelson had command of one of the smaller boats of the ships a four oared cutter manned by twelve seamen In this he helped to save the crew of a boat belonging to the Racehorse from an attack by a herd of enraged walruses He also had a more famous encounter with a polar bear while attempting to obtain a bearskin as a present for his father an exploit that later became part of the Nelson legend Drawing on the ship's journals and expedition commander Phipps journal from the National Archives the book creates a picture of the expedition and life on board Using the ship's muster books it also details the ship's crews giving the different roles and ranks in the ships The book is illustrated using some of the ship's drawings and charts and pictures of many objects used on the ship while a navigational chart of the route taken has been created from the logbooks The book also looks at the overall concept of naval exploration as set in train by Joseph Banks and the Royal Society The fact that the expedition failed as a result of poor planning with potentially tragic results demonstrates the difficulties and uncertainties of such an expedition It also looks at a great naval commander at the earliest stage of his career and considers how the experience might have shaped his later career and attitudes Other great captains and voyages are discussed alongside Nelson including Captain Cook and his exploration of the south seas and the later ill fated northern journeys of Franklin and Shackleton

P-51B Mustang James William "Bill" Marshall, Lowell F. Ford, 2020-07-09

The story of the P-51B Mustang aircraft from its development prior to the American entry into the war through to D Day in June 1944 During World War II the United States Army Air Corps was led by a cadre of officers who believed implicitly that military aviation particularly fast heavy bombers at high altitude would be able to destroy strategic enemy targets during daylight with minimal losses However by 1942 the Flying Fortress was proving vulnerable to Luftwaffe fighters This title charts the United States Army Air Force's struggle to develop a Long Range Escort which would enable them to achieve the Combined Bomber Objectives and gain mastery of the skies over the Third Reich The commitment of the USAAF to the Mediterranean and European theatres saw an increasingly desperate need to find a fighter escort which reached crisis point in 1943 as losses suffered in the Tidal Wave offensive and Schweinfurt Regensburg Munster raids emphasised the mounting strength of the Luftwaffe The USAAF leaders increasingly accepted the probability of bomber losses and the deployment of the P 51B Mustang solved the problem of Germany's layered defence strategy as Luftwaffe fighters had been avoiding the P 47 Thunderbolt and P 38 Lightning escort fighters by concentrating their attacks beyond the range of the Thunderbolt and Lightning The P 51B duly emerged as the The Bastard Stepchild that the USAAF Material Division did not want becoming the key Long Range Escort fighter alongside the P 38 and P 47 that defeated the Luftwaffe prior to D Day As well as the P 51B's history this title explores the technical improvements made to each of these fighters as well as the operational leadership and technical development of the Luftwaffe they fought against
