Proceedings of the 6th International Conference on Economic Management and Green Development Xiaolong Li, Chunhui Yuan, John Kent, 2023-06-27 This proceedings book, together with the conference, looks forward to sparking inspirations and promoting collaborations. International Conference on Economic Management and Green Development (ICEMGD) is an annual conference aiming at bringing together researchers from the fields of economics, business management, public administration and green development for the sharing of research methods and theoretical breakthroughs. The proceedings consist of papers accepted by the 6th ICEMGD, which are carefully selected and reviewed by professional reviewers from corresponding research fields and the editing committee of the conference. The papers have a diverse range of topics situated at the intersecting field of economic management, public administration and green development. ICEMGD is working to provide a platform for international participants from fields like macro and microeconomics, international economics, finance, agricultural economics, health economics, business management and marketing strategies, regional development studies, social governance and sustainable development. The proceedings will be of interest to researchers, academics, professionals and policy makers in the field of economic management, public administration and development studies.

Evolutionary Political Economy in Action Hardy Hanappi, Savvas Katsikides, Manuel Scholz-Wäckerle, 2017-01-06 The world is in turmoil; the dynamics of political economy seem to have entered a phase where a return to normal cannot be expected. Since the financial crisis, conventional economic theory has proven itself to be rather helpless, and political decision makers have become suspicious about this type of economic consultancy. This book offers a different approach. It promises to describe political and economic dynamics as interwoven as they are in real life, and it adds to that an evolutionary perspective. The latter allows for a long-run view which makes it possible to discuss the emergence and exit of social institutions.

Evolutionary Political Economy in Action consists of two parts. Part I provides a broad range of issues that show how flexible evolutionary political economy can handle acute policy problems. In Europe, should Europe support the revived build-up of NATO forces on its Eastern border, or should it rather aim at economic cooperation with Russia? How can democracy for a whole continent be reasonably further developed? What is the role of economies of scope? Do the new protest movements against inequality provide alternatives? What could a vision for a unified socioecological Europe look like? Part II takes a closer look at Cyprus and Greece, where the problems of the financial crisis have been exacerbated by the solutions imposed on them by the troika. In all of these essays, the authors demonstrate the unique insights which can be garnered from adopting an evolutionary political economy approach and consider the real solutions that such an approach points towards. This volume is extremely useful for social scientists in the fields of economics, politics and sociology who are interested to learn Fox, Sim B. Sitkin, 2016-11-22 The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals groups and organizations Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research However policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground a place where scientists and non scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action By design the scope of BSP is broad with topics spanning health care financial decisionmaking energy and the environment education and culture justice and ethics and work place practices Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology sociology law behavioral economics organization science decision science and marketing The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists policymakers and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political
