

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2014 series

0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

0510/22

Paper 2 (Reading and Writing – Extended), maximum raw mark 90

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2014 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

The Intellectual Sword Bruce A. Kimball, Daniel R. Coquillette, 2020-05-26 A history of Harvard Law School in the twentieth century focusing on the school's precipitous decline prior to 1945 and its dramatic postwar resurgence amid national crises and internal discord By the late nineteenth century Harvard Law School had transformed legal education and become the preeminent professional school in the nation But in the early 1900s HLS came to the brink of financial failure and lagged its peers in scholarly innovation It also honed an aggressive intellectual culture famously described by Learned Hand In the universe of truth they lived by the sword They asked no quarter of absolutes and they gave none After World War II however HLS roared back In this magisterial study Bruce Kimball and Daniel Coquillette chronicle the school's near collapse and dramatic resurgence across the twentieth century The school's struggles resulted in part from a debilitating cycle of tuition dependence which deepened through the 1940s as well as the suicides of two deans and the dalliance of another with the Nazi regime HLS stubbornly resisted the admission of women Jews and African Americans and fell behind the trend toward legal realism But in the postwar years under Dean Erwin Griswold the school's resurgence began and Harvard Law would produce such major political and legal figures as Chief Justice John Roberts Justice Elena Kagan and President Barack Obama Even so the school faced severe crises arising from the civil rights movement the Vietnam War Critical Legal Studies and its failure to enroll and retain people of color and women including Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Based on hitherto unavailable sources including oral histories personal letters diaries and financial records The Intellectual Sword paints a compelling portrait of the law school widely considered the most influential in the world

Radio, Public Life and Citizen Deliberation in South Africa Sarah Chiumbu, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2021-05-24 This book critically analyses the important role of radio in public life in post apartheid South Africa As the most widespread and popular form of communication in the country radio occupies an essential space in the deliberation and the construction of public opinion in South Africa From just a few state controlled stations during the apartheid era there are now more than 100 radio stations reaching vast swathes of the population and providing an important space for citizens to air their views and take part in significant socio economic and political issues of the country The various contributors to this book demonstrate that whilst print and television media often serve elite interests and audiences the low cost and flexibility of radio has helped it to create a common space for national dialogue and deliberation The book also investigates the ways in which digital technologies have enhanced the consumption of radio and produced a sense of imagined community for citizens including those in marginalised communities and rural areas This book will be of interest to researchers with an interest in media politics and culture in South Africa specifically as well as those with an interest in broadcast media more generally
