Aging Gracefully with the 23rd Psalm Sharon V. King,2016-04-19 Aging Gracefully with the 23rd Psalm applies some of the best loved verses in scripture to a reflective study of ways women can grow in grace as they grow in years The book provides reflections on themes of aging found in each verse of Psalm 23 such as facing forks in the road coping with changes processing loss and grief and more

Aging Gracefully Together Reginald Audrick,2025-05-06 We all have a choice of how we want to age We can age kicking and screaming We can deny we are aging and in some way with a time of fanatism try to be twenty when we are actually fifty This book encourages the reader to accept and even embrace aging The book lays out suggestions of how married couples can age gracefully together There is an intersection of the spiritual and the secular both important in the aging process The author would hope that at the end of the book the reader will welcome aging and embrace it as something beautiful and not to be dreaded indeed something to look forward to

Undaunted Women of Nanking Hua-ling Hu,Zhang Lian-hong,2010-06-30 One of the Chinese American Librarians Association's Ten Best Books of 2010 During the infamous Rape of Nanking a brutal military occupation of Nanking China that began on December 13 1937 it is estimated that Japanese soldiers killed between 200 000 and 300 000 Chinese and raped between 20 000 and 80 000 women To shelter civilian refugees a group of Westerners established a Nanking Safety Zone Among these humanitarians was Minnie Vautrin an American missionary and acting president of Ginling College She and Tsen Shui fang her Chinese assistant and a trained nurse turned the college into a refugee camp which protected more than 10 000 women and children during the height of the ordeal The Undaunted Women of Nanking juxtaposes day by day the exhausted and terrified women's wartime diaries providing vital eyewitness accounts of the Rape of Nanking and a unique focus on the Ginling refugee camp and the sufferings of women and children Vautrin's diary reveals the humanity and courage of a female missionary in a time of terror Tsen Shui fang's diary never before published in English and translated here for the first time is the only known daily account by a Chinese national written during the crisis and not retrospectively As such it records a unique perspective that of a woman grappling with feelings of anger sorrow and compassion as she witnesses the atrocities being committed in her war torn country Editors Hua ling Hu and Zhang Lian hong have added many informative annotations to the diary entries from sources including the proceedings of the Tokyo War Crimes Trial of 1946 Vautrin's correspondence John Rabe's diary and other historical documents Also included are biographical sketches of the two women a note on the diaries and information about the aftermath of the tragedy as well as maps and photos some of which appear in print in this book for the first time
