conservatives seem to occupy different worlds because we have fundamentally different worldviews systems of values that can be quickly diagnosed with a handful of simple questions but which shape our lives and decisions in the most elemental ways If we're to overcome our seemingly intractable differences Hetherington and Weiler show we must first learn to master the psychological impulses that give rise to them and to understand how politicians manipulate our mindsets for their own benefit Drawing on groundbreaking original research Prius or Pickup provides the psychological key to America's deadlocked politics showing that we are divided not by ideologies but something deeper personality differences that appear in everything from politics to parenting to the workplace to TV preferences and that would be innocuous if only we could decouple them from our noxious political debate A fascinating way to look at the fracturing of a nation Kirkus Reviews An exceptionally insightful and entertaining exploration of the roots of tribalism in American and European society and politics and its ominous consequences for democracy Thomas E Mann Senior Fellow Brookings Institution
