20world Health Report:

Health Reports ,2011      Vital Statistics of the United States ,1978      Proceedings ,1962      Health and the Community Alfred Hyman Katz,Jean Spencer Felton,1965      Annual report of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service of the United States for the fiscal year ... v.1, 1893 ,1894      Public Health Reports ,2016      Health Manpower in the Changing Australian Health Services Scene Ruth Roemer,Milton Irwin Roemer,1975      Proceedings of the Second World Congress on Water Resources ,1975      International Development of Health Manpower Policy Tamás Fülöp,Milton Irwin Roemer,World Health Organization,1982 This report 1 identifies the main policies objectives and thrusts in the health manpower development HMD program of the World Health Organization WHO 2 identifies factors influencing or determining these policies and examines how they have shaped the HMD program 3 investigates how policy changes and achievements in health manpower development in the WHO Member States could be correlated with HMD policies and programs in WHO and 4 draws conclusions for the formulation of policies and programs for WHO for the near and long term future Part One of the report starts with a review of the background of organized international health activities and the birth of WHO The structure and functions of WHO are described along with the administrative evolution of activities related to the education of health personnel and the development of health manpower Part Two discusses the development of HMD activities under the state priorities of WHO 1 greater supplies of conventional health personnel 2 improved personnel standards and academic excellence 3 international standards and migratory freedom 4 health personnel to serve all people 5 efficient training and performance of health personnel 6 preparation for future requirements 7 training of appropriate personnel for local health needs and 8 health service needs determining manpower developments Part Three examines all HMD activities as observed in six countries Ethiopia Indonesia Malaysia Gabon Costa Rica Barbados A description of overall world trends in HMD is presented with an analysis of the extent of the relationship between health manpower resources and the health status of the national population The estimated impact of WHO on national health manpower developments is assessed Part Four summarizes the findings reported in the previous chapters JD      The Louisville Medical News ,1880

Rapid Population Growth National Academy of Sciences (U.S.). Office of the Foreign Secretary,1971      Water for Human Needs: Health and planning ,1975      International Journal of Health Education ,1977      Population Bulletin of the United Nations United Nations. Department of Economic and Social Affairs,1987      The State of the World's Children ,1995 As a contribution to the World Summit for Social Development this UNICEF report argues that protecting and investing in children must be seen as integral to economic and social development and discusses the progress made to that end following the 1990 World Summit for Children Chapter 1 discusses the effect of continued economic and social marginalization of the poorest nations and communities on the normal development of millions of children Chapter 2 looks at the practical progress made by the international community in achieving the goals set at the 1990 World Summit for Children and finds that a majority of the goals are likely to be met by a majority of the developing nations The third chapter proposes that the task facing the World Summit for Social Development is to break down the broader challenges of today s development consensus into do able propositions and to begin mobilizing the necessary support for their achievement Chapter 4 recognizes the need to bring about more fundamental changes to implement the development consensus and discusses the obstacles posed by economic and political vested interests The last chapter identifies the unfinished business of the 20th century to be the restructuring of societies in the interests of the many rather than the few and calls upon the involvement of large numbers of people for fundamental change A section of all country statistical tables for basic indicators nutrition health education demographic indicators economic indicators women basic indicators on less populous countries the rate of progress and regional summaries concludes the report Listings of country groupings definitions and main sources are included BAC *Vital statistics of the United States v. 2 pt.
