Greever,D. A. Horton,Justin McLendon,2025-06-01 Edited by Joshua M Greever D A Horton and Justin McLendon Let Justice Flow Like Water addresses the strained relationship between social justice the gospel and the mission of the church In response to the misuse of Scripture to promote personal ends the volume reorients the conversation around justice and centers it in the biblical text and its theological implications The authors provide practical wisdom and points of application to pastors ministry leaders and students The authors examine the most frequently cited texts on biblical justice through a coherent biblical and systematic theological method The result is a glimpse into God's heart for justice and his desire for humanity especially the church to share this heart The volume's theology is supplemented by practical guidance to pastors so that they can lead their churches to embrace the gospel and social justice properly understood Let Justice Flow Like Water serves as an irenic reminder to pastors students and educated lay people to return to the biblical text to understand it more accurately and to reengage and understand one another in a winsome fashion for the sake of the gospel the mission of the church and the glory of God Sunday School Times ,1882 Picking the "right" Bible Study

Old Testament Narratives and Speech Act Theory explores the creative power of words in Old Testament narratives While the most famous example of this phenomenon might involve divine utterances such as Let there be light Gen 1 1 Steven T Mann argues that human characters can also create worlds with their words in an attempt to influence the imaginations and therefore actions of their listeners This study focuses on the performative nature of speeches that are found in several key Old Testament narratives including Genesis 4 1 26 18 16 33 Exodus 1 8 22 32 1 14 Numbers 13 14 2 Samuel 7 1 17 Amos 7 1 6 and Jonah 2 1 10 4 2 3 Within these narratives characters use their words to create competing worlds that clash as they attempt to advance their own agendas The storyteller's portrayal of these narrative worlds invites the audience to incorporate viewpoints of certain characters into their own world The Christian Witness and Advocate of Bible Holiness ,1899 The Sabbath Recorder ,1918 The Athenaeum ,1900 The Sunday-school Times ,1889 The Publishers Weekly ,1885
