

AP® Macroeconomics Practice Exam

From the 2019 Administrative

These comments demonstrate that Facebook has taken steps to improve its product, and that the company is committed to addressing user concerns. However, it is important to note that the company's actions are not always consistent with its stated values, and that there is still a significant amount of work to be done to create a truly inclusive and safe platform for all users.

President Bush, Congress and the American people demand and expect nothing less. We must continue our efforts to eliminate fully the discriminatory practices that discriminate against women. Only with the support of the American people can we move forward to end the discrimination that has plagued our country for so long.
