Richard Mayhue, 1995 Today s church is embarking on an increasingly pragmatic approach if it works then do it What will this do to us in the long term What will selling the Gospel do for us if it replaces evangelism Richard Mayhue shows a clear pathway for our churches to follow It is a pathway with a history of success because it is the one given to the churches in the New Testament With startling clarity he shows us that there is more than enough guidance for us to turn the world upside down just as the early church did Helpful study questions help you to apply the lessons to yourself and a final chapter examines the awesome question What does Christ think of your church Back cover
