

A close-up, low-angle shot of a red Hesston 1340 combine harvester. The machine is positioned in a field of dry, yellowish-brown grass under a clear blue sky with some light clouds. The harvester's main body is painted a vibrant red. A large, white rectangular label with the number "1340" in bold black font is affixed to the side. To its right, a black rectangular label with the word "HESSTON" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters is visible. Above the main body, a yellow cylindrical component, likely part of the grain elevator or auger system, is visible. A black metal frame or support structure is also seen. In the foreground, a thick black pipe or hose runs diagonally across the frame. The overall scene suggests a rural, agricultural setting during harvest time.
