

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	None
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would surely produce satellites that were better. They could improve delivery of aid.	They could develop better in case of emergencies, save fuel by launching them from their launch complex. They could launch nuclear weapons, planned attack the continent of America (through Canada, etc.)
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not Eisenhower.	Others might disagree, even Eisenhower's vice president.
4. Would the two nations agree about such things as nuclear security?	Yes. The governments had no disagreement about the common security.	Yes. American public was concerned and would not take a second chance like Korea.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, however.

What would be the main problem?

Money to build the satellites and rockets.

What would be the main problem? The satellites were needed.

What would be the main problem? The rockets were needed.
