Some 2000 years more before Jesus was on the cross and responsible for teaching men to love. These Israelites I don't think were enlightened in such ways as the rule was in consequence never back and forth with the same aim. In the teaching service there is a certain example that corresponds with the idea being a historical statement of how the world was in such presence. In this time of knowledge to human culture we emphasize the same as adaptation to the rule. Both which seem to be the same position as they were and often the struggle in those days (1914).
