

Welcome aboard your vehicle

This user manual contains the information required:

- for you to familiarise yourself with your vehicle, to use it to its best advantage, and to fully benefit from the all the functions and the technical developments it incorporates.
- to ensure that it always gives the best performance by following the simple, but comprehensive advice concerning regular maintenance.
- to enable you to deal quickly with minor faults not requiring specialist attention.

It is well worth taking a few minutes to read this manual to familiarise yourself with the information and guidelines it contains about the vehicle and its functions and new features. If certain points are still unclear, our Network technicians will be only too pleased to provide you with any additional information.

For guidance, please see the following symbols:

Visible on the vehicle, they show that you should consult the manual to find detailed information and/or limits on operation in respect of equipment on your vehicle.

- ➔ anywhere in the manual indicates a transfer to a page.

anywhere in the manual indicates a hazard, danger or a safety recommendation.

The description of the models given in this manual is based on the technical specifications at the time of writing. The manual covers all items of equipment (both standard and optional) available for these models, but whether or not these are fitted to the vehicle depends on the version, the options selected and the country where the vehicle is sold.

This manual may also contain information about items of equipment to be introduced later in the model year.

The diagrams in the user manual are provided as examples only.

Enjoy driving your new vehicle.

framework within which these incidents occurred Angelyn Spaulding Flowers and Cotina Lane Pixley use a mixed methods approach to examine a diverse set of factors identifying risk and protective factors along with specifically desired public policy responses by evaluating the convergence of variables from the range of school based mass shootings included in this study These variables include the type of weapon used the availability of that type of weapon perpetrator characteristics school characteristics as well as the geospatial and demographic characteristics of the school neighborhood These school based mass shooting incidents are explored at both the state and regional level and are further discussed in comparison to leisure time gun use homicide rates and suicide rates in the geographical area The overarching geospatial analytical framework for this research also includes an examination of the manner in which existing policy enactments such as state gun laws vary by geography Spaulding Flowers and Lane Pixley argue that the increased number of fatalities in school based mass shooting is largely due to the increased lethality of the weapons and they propose alternative solutions Scholars of criminology sociology political science and history will find this book particularly useful
