Chapters of Dependency Grammar András Imrényi,Nicolas Mazziotta,2020-02-06 Was Tesni re the founding father of dependency grammar or merely a culmination point in its long history Leaving no doubt that the latter position is correct Chapters of Dependency Grammar tells the story of how dependency oriented grammatical description developed from Antiquity up to the early 20th century From Priscian s Rome to Dmitrievsky s Russia from the French Encyclopaedia to Stephen W Clark s school grammars in 19th century America it is shown how the concept of dependencies asymmetric word to word relations surfaced again and again assuming a central place in syntax A particularly intriguing aspect of the storyline is that even without any direct contact or influence authors were making key breakthroughs in similar directions In the works of S müel Brassai a Transylvanian polymath and Franz Kern a German grammarian the first dependency trees appear in 1873 and 1883 respectively predating Tesni re s stemmas by several decades

2007, Emerging Powers, Global Justice and International Economic Law Andreas Buser,2021-01-04 The book assesses emerging powers influence on international economic law and analyses whether their rhetoric of reforming this unjust order translates into concrete reforms The questions at the heart of the book surround the extent to which Brazil Russia India China and South Africa individually and as a bloc BRICS provide alternative regulatory ideas to those of Western States and whether they are able to convert their increased power into influence on global regulation To do so the book investigates two broader case studies namely the reform of international investment agreements and WTO reform negotiations since the start of the Doha Development Round As a general outcome it finds that emerging powers do not radically challenge established law Third World rhetoric mostly does not translate into practice and rather serves to veil economic interests Still emerging powers provide for some alternative regulatory ideas already leading to a diversification of international economic law As a general rule they tend to support norms that allow host States much policy space which could be used to protect and fulfil socio economic human rights especially but not only in the Global South
