Review Questions: Identifying Supporting Details

DIRECTIONS: Read each main idea. Use your textbook to supply the details that support or explain each main idea.

A. Main Idea: The 1950s was a decade of prosperity, with people moving to the suburbs, buying new products, and working in offices.

1. Detail: Americans produced an abundance of goods and services because of New techniques and technology.
2. Detail: Many Americans moved to the suburbs to avoid the crime and congestion of city neighborhoods.
3. Detail: From 1945 to 1961, the birthrate exploded. Some contributing factors of the baby boom were: GI benefits encouraged the growth and popular celebrated large families.

B. Main Idea: American scientists broke new ground in the areas of electronics, manufacturing, and medicine.

1. Detail: In electronics, the development of the transistor made radios smaller and portable; the development of the computer launched a revolution, and the development of the jet made airline travel available to many.
2. Detail: The development of powerful antibiotics and vaccines made infections much more treatable.
3. Detail: Scientist Salk developed an injectable vaccine to prevent polio. Later, the Sabin vaccine became the common method of prevention.

C. Main Idea: As television became popular, other forms of entertainment had to adapt in order to survive.

1. Detail: By 1957, nearly 80% percent percent of families had at least one television. Popular formats included comedy, variety shows, and action programs.
2. Detail: The Automobiles saved the radio industry as commuters listened in transit.

Peer-to-peer Training Facilitator's Guide Michele N. Costanza, 2009 The peer to peer P2P training approach involves small groups of people from similar social groupings who are not professional teachers helping each other to learn The P2P approach has great potential for rapidly identifying emerging lessons learned and integrating them into wide reaching Army training The present research identified the instructional principles and best practices for P2P from academia industry and the military supporting effective P2P training and incorporated them into a Soldier friendly facilitator s guide A formative evaluation was conducted with Soldiers using the guide to prepare and conduct group discussions for a face to face group setting and a distributed group setting where Soldiers were linked via video teleconference One group of Soldiers served as facilitators and used the facilitator s guide to prepare and lead discussions with other Soldiers who served as learners Feedback on the guide was mostly positive with Soldiers indicating that the guide provided an appropriate amount of information and a usable format and tools for structuring and fostering group discussions Ongoing efforts to transition P2P methods into Army training are discussed
