

You will submit a topic proposal to me. Choose a topic that you are interested in and will be able to write an extended paper about. You will present the topic to me for approval before beginning the next step of the Research Paper. Your proposal should include the topic you chose, the reason that you chose that topic, and answer the following questions about the topic. You will also write a paragraph about where and how you will research that topic. This will be your ACTION PLAN. You will also include AT LEAST 2 sources that you plan to use in your paper. These should be cited at the bottom of your proposal in the correct CHICAGO format.

Choose your topic with careful consideration. It is essential that you are satisfied with your choice of research topic; the project will inevitably suffer if you lose interest in the topic at some point during the project. You will need to do some preliminary research in order to determine what topic you will write your paper on. Remember, you should choose a topic that you can find enough appropriate sources about. Use your time wisely and pace yourself. I give you more time to make decisions/work at the beginning than at the end of this project. Each piece that you submit will be graded, but more importantly, these pieces are assigned so that you do not have a full project to complete in a weekend.

PARAGRAPH 1: TOPIC PROPOSAL	You should write a paragraph that tells me what topic you are choosing to write about and why you are choosing that topic.
PARAGRAPH 2: ACTION PLAN	You should write a paragraph that explains the process that you will use to complete this project. How will you budget your time? Where will you go to find the appropriate sources?
TENTATIVE BIBLIOGRAPHY	At the bottom of your page, you should include TWO scholarly sources that you will use in your paper. These sources should be correctly formatted in CHICAGO format.

2. Annotated Bibliography
DUE: (MAJOR 100 POINTS)
