History of the Government

For most of the country's history, the government has been run by a small group of people who were not elected. These people were called the "elite." They controlled the government and the economy. They were not interested in giving power to the people. This changed in the 1930s, when a new president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, came into power. He believed that the government should be run for the people. He created a new system of government, called "democracy." In this system, the people have more power. They can vote for their own leaders and make their own decisions. This has led to a more democratic government in the United States.
