current technology research methods and evaluation of sources to help students construct cohesive and responsible research papers. Students learn to write in their own voices to an audience whose needs they have been taught to discover. The text covers both APA and MLA styles of documentation with sample papers in each style and treats both library and electronic research techniques as integral steps in the process. Research Writing in the Information Age is a collaborative real world user friendly text designed to teach students contemporary techniques to take them into the next century. The Smart Way Glennis Zilm, Cheryl Entwistle, 2002. The SMART Way is a guide for nurses and nursing students who wish to improve their writing skills. This second edition examines the essential elements of written communication and teaches readers how to apply the SMART approach to writing using the five steps of Source Message Audience Route and Tone. Following the latest APA style guidelines, The SMART Way illustrates the various forms of common written communication such as e-mail, letters, memos, reports, resumes, briefs, articles and research papers. The book also includes many useful sample documents and helpful skill testing exercises. Book jacket. Thomson Handbook David Blakesley, Jeffrey Laurence Hoogeveen, 2006-08. THE THOMSON HANDBOOK PREVIEW EDITION is an early look at the rhetorical handbook for the digital age. THE THOMSON HANDBOOK puts students writing front and center with an innovative page format that keeps students' attention focused on their own writing and on activities, checklists, projects and visual aids that help them write. The page design and innovative visuals make information about writing, reading, research, documentation, technology and grammar easy for students to access and understand. To accomplish their writing tasks, students are taught to ground their rhetorical decisions in the specific context in which they are writing. As a further aid to writing and research, THE THOMSON HANDBOOK gives students more and better information on using technology than any other handbook. Technology Toolboxes throughout as well as two dedicated parts of the book, Parts 5 and 6, teach students how to apply technology to their writing tasks, whether the task is to write a personal essay, a persuasive essay, a critical review, a photographic essay, a technology autobiography, a blog, a website or more than twenty other different kinds of writing projects.
