Interethnic Communication Current Research:

Interethnic Communication Young Yun Kim, 1986     An Introduction to Intercultural Communication Fred E. Jandt, 2012-02-02 Filled with thought provoking examples photos quotes cases and stories that spark students interest and challenge them to reconsider existing viewpoints the Seventh Edition of Fred Jandt's An Introduction to Intercultural Communication a historical framework featuring extensive relevant updates prepares today's readers to successfully navigate our increasingly global community     The Global Intercultural Communication Reader Molefi Kete Asante, Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2013-06-26 The Global Intercultural Communication Reader is the first anthology to take a distinctly non Eurocentric approach to the study of culture and communication. In this expanded second edition editors Molefi Kete Asante, Yoshitaka Miike and Jing Yin bring together thirty two essential readings for students of cross cultural intercultural and international communication. This stand out collection aims to broaden and deepen the scope of the field by placing an emphasis on diversity including work from authors across the globe examining the processes and politics of intercultural communication from critical historical and indigenous perspectives. The collection covers a wide range of topics the emergence and evolution of the field issues and challenges in cross cultural and intercultural inquiry cultural wisdom and communication practices in context identity and intercultural competence in a multicultural society the effects of globalization and ethical considerations. Many readings first appeared outside the mainstream Western academy and offer diverse theoretical lenses on culture and communication practices in the world community. Organized into five themed sections for easy classroom use The Global Intercultural Communication Reader includes a detailed bibliography that will be a crucial resource for today's students of intercultural communication     Human Communication Research, 1986

Intercultural Communication Ling Chen, 2017-04-10 This handbook takes a multi disciplinary approach to offer a current state of art survey of intercultural communication IC studies. The chapters aim for conceptual comprehension theoretical clarity and empirical understanding with good practical implications. Attention is mostly on face to face communication and networked communication facilitated by digital technologies much less on technically reproduced mass communication. Contributions cover both cross cultural communication implicit or explicit comparative works on communication practices across cultures and intercultural communication works on communication involving parties of diverse cultural backgrounds. Topics include generally histories of IC research theoretical perspectives non western theories and cultural communication specifically communication styles emotions interpersonal relationships ethnocentrism stereotypes cultural learning cross cultural adaptation and cross border messages and particular context of conflicts social change aging business health and new media. Although the book is prepared for graduate students and academicians intercultural communication practitioners will also find something useful here     Dynamics of Intercultural Communication Carley H. Dodd, 1995     Theories in Intercultural Communication Young Yun Kim, William B

Gudykunst, 1988-10 Published in cooperation with the Speech Communication Association Division on International and Intercultural Communication Just as the earlier version of this work Intercultural Communication Theory helped to define the field Theories In Intercultural Communication also makes an important contribution This collection represents the major current approaches to the study of intercultural communication as well as of communication in general The contributors cover constructivist theory coordinated management theory convergence theory adaptation in intercultural relationships intercultural transformation and network theory The volume offers an analysis of the most current theories in intercultural communication It also points to areas of further research and the need for continued refinements of existing approaches This volume is valuable for graduate students and professionals in the areas of communication especially intercultural and interpersonal ethnic studies cross cultural studies comparative studies and education The book is well conceived in its purpose scope and organization It is also well executed with an even quality throughout Each chapter author clearly presents the theory and provides thorough documentation This volume promises to become a central piece in both the definition and development of theory in intercultural communication Modern Language Journal This volume does represent a significant attempt to consolidate and crystallize the current intellectual core concepts of mainstream intercultural communications theories and to push the field forward toward a more rigorous and coherent state As a collection these essays cover a lot of the bumpy terrain that constitutes the field of intercultural communication from an interpersonal perspective Very useful in the context of a university course on intercultural communications Canadian Journal of Communication Intercultural Communication for Everyday Life John R. Baldwin, Robin R. Means Coleman, Alberto González, Suchitra
