14 Regional Convention Notebook:

The Management of Marine Regions: The North Pacific Edward Miles, Stephen Gibbs, David Fluharty, Christine Dawson, David Teeter, 2021 The North Pacific Project was established at the Institute for Marine Studies University of Washington in September 1976 and was funded by the Rockefeller Foundation This funding eventually covered the period September 1 1976 to August 31 1980 The Project seeks to identify and describe in detail the major marine policy problems of the North Pacific region This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982      Regional Conventions on Protection of Human Rights Louis B. Sohn, 1973      The Management of Marine Regions Edward L. Miles, 1982-01-01 This book and an accompanying atlas complete the first phase of the North Pacific Project The Project seeks to identify and describe in detail the major marine policy problems of the North Pacific region Divided into parts Living resources in the North Pacific Marine transportation on the North Pacific Marine scientific research in the North Pacific Multiple use conditions and conflicts of the North Pacific PSA Journal , 1959      Preventing and Combating Violence Against Women and Domestic Violence Sara De Vido, Micaela Frulli, 2023-12-11 This Commentary provides the first comprehensive analysis of the Council of Europe CoE Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence the Istanbul Convention It offers a complete article by article guide to the Convention with reference to the explanatory report the findings of the monitoring body GREVIO and relevant State practice      The Rotterdam Rules Yvonne Baatz, Charles Debattista, Filippo Lorenzon, Andrew Serdy, Hilton Staniland, Michael Tsimplis, 2013-09-11 The Rotterdam Rules represent the most comprehensive overhaul of the law of carriage of goods by sea in more than fifty years To coincide with the signing ceremony six members of the Institute of Maritime Law have written a detailed commentary on the Rules The Rotterdam Rules A Practical Annotation examines the text of the Rules all ninety six articles of the new Convention and compares them to the text of the Hague Visby Rules the instrument currently covering most bills of lading The authors have also examined the judgments in cases decided in the English Courts under the Carriage of Goods by Sea Acts of 1971 and 1992 and have indicated whether these cases would be decided differently under the new Rotterdam Rules      The Bulletin of the National Association of Purchasing Agents National Association of Purchasing Agents, 1941      International Law for Small-Scale Fisheries Julia N. Nakamura, 2025-03-27 This book provides an original and groundbreaking account of the applicability and key contributions of international law to small scale fisheries a fisheries subsector that has been historically overlooked by governments and international legal scholarship Small scale fisheries constitute most of the world's capture fisheries workforce they sustain the livelihoods of fishers and their communities while building and transmitting traditional knowledge and culture Significant attention has been given to small scale fisheries by the international community over the past decade building the momentum for dedicated research on such a topic Nevertheless the literature examining small scale fisheries from an international legal perspective remains scarce This book fills this gap by systemically examining different international legal regimes to unravel the normative foundations for securing the meaningful participation of small scale fisheries peoples in international fisheries management It connects the ecosystem approach a key principle of international fisheries law and the human rights regime to elucidate the benefits that participatory international fisheries management brings to enhance both the ecological and social aspects of fisheries sustainability It also examines the extent to which fisheries governance is democratic and provides an enabling framework for the integration of fishers knowledge into international fisheries management It is thereby oriented toward more justice and fair outcomes for small scale fisheries This book will be a valuable resource for academics and researchers with an interest in the governance of fisheries in international law the law of the sea environmental law and human rights law as well as to practitioners and policymakers working on the development and implementation of laws and policies governing fisheries and natural resources     Public Utilities Fortnightly ,1976     Whaling Diplomacy Alexander Gillespie,2005-01-01 Whaling Diplomacy is the only book that addresses all of the substantive issues relating to the conservation of whales through the International Whaling Commission IWC It covers the law policy science and philosophy at the heart of each element of the debate discussing how it has developed the current problems that beset it and what is necessary for the future Together all of the issues involved in whaling form a single crucible through which the future of conservation in international environmental law is being debated Students of law politics environmental economics and philosophy will find this book of great value for its cutting edge relevance over the three disciplines Policymakers will also find it of interest for the insight into one of the most controversial conservation debates of our time BOOK JACKET

Terrorism and Low Intensity Conflict in South Asian Region Omprakash Mishra,Sucheta Ghosh,2003 Terrorism and low intensity conflicts are not new in South Asia but the September 11 2001 terror attacks on the United States suddenly gave the events a new dimension From regional considerations terrorism acquired global connotation and in this changed perspective South Asian terrorism and low intensity conflicts needed to be explored afresh The geographical region covered by the book includes predominantly the member countries of SAARC Afghanistan and Myanmar as also specific case studies including a few instances of terrorist activities from beyond the region The papers analyse the societal political and economic factors responsible for the rise and salience of terrorism the challenges posed by terrorism and low intensity conflict on peace stability and security of the nation states and people the international regional and national regime against terrorism and perpetrators of mass violence the motives ideologies strategies and activities of various non state armed groups in South Asia and thereby contribute toward meaningful policy options in tackling terrorism and activities of armed groups     Sky and Telescope Charles Federer,1963     Industrial Engineering George Worthington,1900     The Epworth Herald
