John Vachons America Photographs And Letters From The Depression To World War II:

John Vachon's America John Vachon,2003-12-12 From 1936 to 1943 John Vachon traveled across America as part of the Farm Security Administration photography project documenting the desperate world of the Great Depression and also the efforts at resistance from strikes to stoic determination This collection the first to feature Vachon's work offers a stirring and elegant record of this extraordinary photographer's vision and of America's land and people as the country moved from the depths of the Depression to the dramatic mobilization for World War II Vachon's portraits of white and black Americans are among the most affecting that FSA photographers produced and his portrayals of the American landscape from rural scenes to small towns and urban centers present a remarkable visual account of these pivotal years in a style that is transitional from Walker Evans to Robert Frank Vachon nurtured a lifelong ambition to be a writer and the intimate and revealing letters he wrote from the field to his wife back home reflect vividly on American conditions on movies and jazz on landscape and on his job fulfilling the directives from Washington to capture the heart of America Together these letters and photographs along with journal entries and other writings by Vachon constitute a multifaceted biography of this remarkable photographer and a unique look at the years he captured in such unforgettable images Humanitarian Photography Heide Fehrenbach,Davide Rodogno,2015-02-23 This book investigates the historical evolution of humanitarian photography the mobilization of photography in the service of humanitarian initiatives across state boundaries

Picturing a Nation: The Great Depression's Finest Photographers Introduce America to Itself Martin W. Sandler,2021-11-23 A National Book Award winner mines photographic gold to show and tell the story of the Great Depression In an exquisitely curated volume of 140 full color and black and white photographs Martin W Sandler unpacks the United States Farm Security Administration's sweeping visual record of the Great Depression In 1935 with the nation bent under unprecedented unemployment and economic hardship the FSA sent ten photographers including Walker Evans Dorothea Lange and Gordon Parks on the road trip of a lifetime The images they logged revealed the daily lives of Southern sharecroppers Dust Bowl farmers in the Midwest Western migrant workers and families scraping by in Northeast cities Using their cameras as weapons against poverty and racism and in service of hope courage and human dignity these talented photographers created not only a collective work of art but a national treasure Grouped into four geographical regions and locked in focus by rich historical commentary these images many now iconic are history at its most powerful and immediate Extensive back matter includes photographer profiles and a bibliography Flash! Kate Flint,2017 A lively history of flash photography from the nineteenth century to the present that covers diverse topics like race poverty and the paparazzi It surveys the work of professionals and amateurs news hounds and art photographers and photographers of crime and wildlife to highlight the role of flash in popular culture literature and film Artexhibitions Curatorial Assistance, Inc,2004 Catalog of exhibitions available for rental from Curatorial Assistance Inc Archives and Images ,2004 Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic

Fairchild Sherman,2003-07    ARTnews ,2003    Umbrella ,2004    After Many Springs Debra Bricker Balken,2009
After Many Springs is the title of a Thomas Hart Benton painting that evokes nostalgia for a fertile creative time gone by This bold new book taking the name of this work by Benton examines the intersections between Regionalist and Modernist paintings photography and film during the Great Depression a period when the two approaches to art making were perhaps at their zenith It is commonly believed that Regionalist artists Benton John Steuart Curry and Grant Wood reacted to the economic and social devastation of their era by harking back in tranquil bucolic paintings to a departed utopia However this volume compares their work to that of photographers such as Dorothea Lange and Ben Shahn and filmmakers such as Josef von Sternberg all of whom documented the desolation of the Depression and finds surprising commonalities The book also notes intriguing connections between Regionalist artists and Modernists Jackson Pollock and Philip Guston countering prevailing assumptions that Regionalism was an anathema to these New York School painters and showing their shared fascination with the Midwest Distributed for the Des Moines Art Center Exhibition Schedule Des Moines Art Center January 30 May 17 2009    Camerawork ,2004    FSA Gilles Mora,Beverly W. Brannan,2006-10 For this remarkable volume Mora and Brannan immersed themselves in the vast archive at the Library of Congress and emerged with unknown treasures Theirs is a new view of the achievement of the FSA photographers the most comprehensive in print that gives them their due as the creators of a new American photographic vision    Picturing Minnesota, 1936-1943 Robert L. Reid,1989 Picturing Minnesota brings together the best of the images taken in Minnesota from the collection of photographs commissioned by the Farm Security Administration during the depression era and the advent of World War II Among the photographers represented here are John Vachon a native of St Paul Russell Lee Jack Delano Arthur Rothstein and Marion Post Wolcott Outstanding as photographic works of art these pictures are unique in their ability to convey the details of life in Minnesota during those years Publisher s description from lensculture com    The Art Bulletin ,2002 Includes section Notes and reviews    Mixed messages Catherine Gander,Sarah Garland,2016-09-01 Offering a major contribution to the field of American culture and aesthetics in an interdisciplinary frame this collection assembles the cutting edge research of renowned and emerging scholars in literature and the visual arts with a foreword by Miles Orvell The volume represents the first of its kind an intervention in current interdisciplinary approaches to the intersections of the written word and the visual image that moves beyond standard theoretical approaches to consider the written and visual artwork in embodied cognitive and experiential terms Tracing a strong lineage of pragmatism romanticism surrealism and dada in American intermedial works through the nineteenth century to the present day the editors and authors of this volume chart a new and vital methodology for the study and appreciation of the correspondences between visual and verbal practices    Art Journal ,1960    Montana ,2004    The Southern Register ,2004    Hard Luck Blues Rich Remsberg,2010-03-08 Showcasing American music and music making during the Great Depression Hard Luck Blues presents more than two hundred photographs created by the New Deal's Farm Security Administration photography program. With an appreciation for the amateur and the local FSA photographers depicted a range of musicians sharing the regular music of everyday life from informal songs in migrant work camps, farmers homes, barn dances and on street corners to organized performances at church revivals, dance halls and community festivals. Captured across the nation from the northeast to the southwest, the images document the last generation of musicians who learned to play without the influence of recorded sound as well as some of the pioneers of Chicago's R&B scene and the first years of amplified instruments. The best visual representation of American roots music performance during the Depression era, Hard Luck Blues features photographs by Jack Delano, Dorothea Lange, Russell Lee, Arthur Rothstein, Ben Shahn, Marion Post Wolcott and others. Photographer and image researcher Rich Remsberg breathes life into the images by providing contextual details about the persons and events captured in some cases drawing on interviews with the photographers' subjects. Also included are a foreword by author Nicholas Dawidoff and an afterword by music historian Henry Sapoznik. Published in association with the Library of Congress.
