different types of ciders and how they can be used in various apple crisp and crumble recipes. The author, a passionate baker and apple enthusiast, provides helpful tips and tricks throughout the book to ensure that every recipe turns out perfectly. She discusses the different types of apples that are best suited for various recipes and the importance of balancing sweetness and tartness. She also offers suggestions for different toppings and mix-ins to customize each recipe to your liking. In addition to the mouth-watering recipes, Crunchy Cider also provides a brief history of apples and cider, as well as the ways in which they have been used in various cultures throughout history. The history lesson is interwoven beautifully with the recipes and adds a nice touch of context and appreciation for these beloved fruits. One of the standout recipes in the book is the Cinnamon Apple Crisp with Cider Whipped Cream. This recipe takes the classic apple crisp to another level by adding freshly grated cinnamon and using a mixture of oats and toasted almonds for the topping. But the real showstopper is the homemade whipped cream made with cider reduction, which adds a tangy and slightly boozy twist to the dish. Another delicious recipe is the Blueberry Apple Crumble with Ginger Streusel. This recipe showcases the versatility of apples by pairing them with blueberries and fresh ginger. The crumble topping is made with candied ginger and oats, which adds a chewy texture and a little bit of sass to the dish. Crunchy Cider goes beyond your traditional dessert dishes and offers unique and unexpected recipes such as Apple Cheddar Crisp and Apple Crumble Pizza. Both dishes embrace the combination of sweet and savory and offer a delightful twist on these classic treats. Country Life, 2007 Apple Crumble Catherine Montgomery, 2019-03-28 Having moved to London from Durham with his mum, Lenny finds his new environment somewhat scary and daunting. Matters are seemingly made worse when he spots the rather fierce-looking elderly neighbour, Mrs Portman, glaring at him from behind her dirty windows. Telling his mum she is inspired to start a cleaning company and Lenny is persuaded to help his mum sort out the rubbish in Mrs Portman's pantry. There, the discovery of an old recipe book leads to Mrs Portman teaching Lenny how to make apple crumble, which he subsequently shares with his class at school the next day. The sequence of events helps Lenny to realise that things are not always as scary as they may at first seem.
