The BRICS Studies Xu Xiujun, 2020-05-14 Given their immense potential for development and representation of a new international political and economic order the BRICS countries have become a strong nascent force on the global stage However as overall economic growth continues to slow down and the geopolitical situation becomes more complex the BRICS countries are facing a series of new challenges that require further development in the way they cooperate with one another This volume offers a panoramic view of cooperation between the BRICS countries in the light of these new challenges The editors reveal that policy coordination has been strengthened bringing into play complementary advantages as viable ways for promoting robust sustainable and balanced growth in the world economy They argue that the experience gained and lessons learned in the development of and cooperation between the BRICS countries has offered a positive role model for cooperation between other countries as well as providing valuable lessons for research in international politics Students and scholars in international relations and politics will benefit from this volume

Transforming Water Management in South Africa Barbara Schreiner, Rashid M. Hassan, 2011-12-10 One of the early set of reforms that South Africa embarked on after emerging from apartheid was in the water sector following a remarkable consultative process The policy and legal reforms were comprehensive and covered almost all aspects of water management including revolutionary changes in defining and allocating rights to water radical reforms in water management and supply institutions the introduction of the protection of environmental flows and major shifts in charging for water use and in the provision of free basic water Over ten years of implementation of these policy and legislative changes mean that valuable lessons have already been learned and useful experiences gained in the challenge of effective water resources management and water services provision in a middle income country
