

Student Paper in APA Style:

Font and spacing

The entire title page, as well as the rest of the paper, should be double-spaced in size 12, Times New Roman font. The title of your paper should appear centered horizontally in the upper half of the title page and be up to 12 words in length. The title should accurately represent the content as briefly as possible. Your name and the name of the college are the only other items required with the title, but your instructor may ask you to include other information such as course number or date.

Header

The paper's header can be created using the "Insert" tab in Microsoft Word 2007 or the "View" menu in Word 2003 and earlier. On the title page, the words "Running head" introduce a summary of your title in all capital letters and no more than 50 characters including punctuation and spaces. The page number stands alone as a numeral on the same line as the running head, at the right margin. Use the "Page number" command under "Insert" in Microsoft Word so that page numbers will be sequenced automatically.

About the author note

The publication manual shows an Author Note as an optional item on the title page. It appears in the lower half of the page and contains information about the authors, their institutional affiliations, or how the article was written. It is not needed for student papers unless an instructor asks for it.

If this page differs from your APA Manual

Although the first printing of the sixth edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) contained formatting errors in the sample paper, this document follows the corrected second printing of the manual. The APA's corrected sample papers are available at <http://supp.apa.org/style/PM6E-Corrected-Sample-Papers.pdf>.

The International Student's Guide to Writing a Research Paper Janine Carlock, Maeve Eberhardt, Jaime Horst, Peter Kolenich, 2017-06-13 The International Student's Guide to Writing a Research Paper is a reference text for undergraduate students and those in ESL or bridge courses who are writing a research paper for the first time. This book is partly an update of Writing a Research Paper by Lionel Menasche 1998 and partly a companion to The ESL Writer's Handbook. Each section of the book includes a discrete task called a Building Block which requires students to apply the skills learned toward the development of their own paper. This step by step approach allows students to construct knowledge as they become more familiar with the process making writing a research paper a less intimidating task. Special features: This guide uses simple direct language for those for whom writing a research paper is new. Most example writing is from international students in an ESL program or first year writing class including two sample papers one in APA and one in MLA. A section on responding to instructor feedback to provide students with the tools to read and understand comments and use them to improve the first draft. A subsection dedicated to constructing clear and cohesive paragraphs and sentences. The guide includes citation and style examples in MLA 8th edition.

Writing a Research Paper Lionel Menasche, 1997 A guide to writing a research paper for nonnative speakers of English in an academic setting.

Engaging Undergraduates in Publishable Research:

Best Practices Traci A. Giuliano, Jeanine L. M. Skorinko, Marianne Fallon, 2019-11-20 Although many articles and books have been written about conducting research with undergraduates there is a dearth of research on the process of publishing with undergraduates. Thus in this research topic we assembled a collection of 43 articles from 98 researchers worldwide who are passionate about and have had success in publishing high quality peer reviewed journal articles with undergraduates. The diverse articles represent a wide range of practices to help researchers publish with undergraduates including structuring the curriculum to promote undergraduate research and publication, optimizing research experiences for undergraduates, training students in implementing advanced techniques, accessing special populations or conducting research in off campus settings, addressing institutional and career challenges for faculty and increasing inclusion and diversity. Each article provides a unique and diverse perspective that nevertheless resonates across contexts and situations. We hope that the ideas, models, techniques and practices in these articles will motivate and inspire readers to begin, continue or rethink how they engage undergraduates in publishable research. We also hope to stimulate empirical and quantitative research on the effectiveness of these ideas, models, techniques and practices.

Handbook for Social Work Writing Susan E.

Mason, Wendy Zeitlin, 2024-03-28 This concise, accessible and engaging handbook offers a companion for social work students to acquire professional and competency based writing skills. Written by experienced educators, the book builds writing proficiency by introducing a social work based guide to academic writing and professional communication. Each chapter addresses a specific area of social work writing and development, progressing from coursework and beginning fieldwork to practice based assessments and reports The authors integrate a series of scaffolded activities throughout for readers to cultivate awareness and further technique and with sections explaining contemporary communication methods and common writing challenges readers will be prepared to use technology both to strengthen their writing and to ease the overall process Excellent for use in courses across the social work curriculum and as a personal guide the Handbook for Social Work Writing provides students with on the spot guidance for any type of academic or professional writing assignment Research Papers William Coyle,1995 Researching can be a daunting task but once one learns efficient research techniques and proper format and documentation the process becomes much easier This book teaches both these techniques and formats This user friendly book continues to be a leading book for teaching research techniques and current practices in research documentation Spiral bound the book is structured to correspond to the step by step process of writing research papers from the initial research to the documentation of sources Its description of library use illustrates both print and electronic sources including more than 50 examples of proper documentation Discussions of computer catalogs the Internet and CD ROM bring readers up to date on the most recent innovations in library research techniques While stressing the MLA style throughout the author also discusses APA style in depth and includes a sample paper in that style The major chapters contain exercises to reinforce the most important points and the bibliography serves as a reliable reference source for 24 different fields
