Gods & Goddesses

Zeus, the god of the sky and lightning, was the most powerful of the gods. He was the father of many of the other gods and goddesses.

The gods and goddesses of the Greek pantheon were believed to live on Mount Olympus. They were all powerful and could control the elements of nature.

The Greek Creation Myth: How the world was created

The world was created by the gods. The first god was Chaos, the void. From Chaos came the Titans, the first generation of gods. The Titans were overthrown by the Olympians, the second generation of gods.

Science and Technology in Homeric Epics S. A. Paipetis,2008-10-20 In the Homeric Epics important references to specific autonomous systems and mechanisms of very advanced technology such as automata and artificial intelligence as well as to almost modern methods of design and production are included Even if those features of Homeric science were just poetic concepts which on many occasions does not explain the astonishing details of design and manufacture like the ones included in the present volume they seem to prove that these achievements were well within human capability In addition the substantial development of machine theory during the early post Homeric age shows that the Homeric descriptions were a kind of prophetic conception of these machines and scientific research must be a quest for the fundamental principles of knowledge available during the Late Bronze Age and the dawn of the Iron Age Such investigations must of necessity be strongly interdisciplinary and also proceed continuously in time since as science progresses new elements of knowledge are discovered in the Homeric Epics amenable to scientific analysis This book brings together papers presented at the international symposium Science and Technology in Homeric Epics which took place at Ancient Olympia in 2006 It includes a total of 41 contributions mostly original research papers covering diverse fields of science and technology in the modern sense of these words

Innovations and Technologies for Soft Skill Development and Learning Nagarajan, Suresh Kumar,R., Mohanasundaram,2020-04-10 Traditional education revolves around the teaching of technical skills especially within STEM fields However soft skills broadly communication and intrapersonal skills are essential within all fields especially those frequently involving research and collaboration However the focus on teaching students to be adept communicators and team members remains woefully underdeveloped Innovations and Technologies for Soft Skill Development and Learning is a pivotal reference source that explores the mental and psychological growth of individual learners at different stages of education concerning soft skills and
