Calasanti, Kathleen F. Slevin, 2013-10-11 This volume of original chapters is designed to bring attention to a neglected area of feminist scholarship aging After several decades of feminist studies we are now well informed of the complex ways that gender shapes the lives of women and men Similarly we know more about how gendered power relations interface with race and ethnicity class and sexual orientation Serious theorizing of old age and age relations to gender represents the next frontier of feminist scholarship In this volume leading national and international feminist scholars of aging take first steps in this direction illuminating how age relations interact with other social inequalities particularly gender In doing so the authors challenge and transform feminist scholarship and many taken for granted concepts in gender studies      Disciplining Old Age Stephen Katz, 1996 The conference was organized cooperatively with the Surface Engineering Division of the ASM and as part of Materials Week and so was attended by a wider range of scientists from academia and engineers from industry than usual Funding cuts affecting travel budgets in many institutions however reduced the overall number those who were not able to attend can begin saving for the proceedings The 43 papers cover ultrahard coatings surface treatment and alternative processes corrosion resistant coatings characterizing coatings the surface engineering of powders laser processing vapor deposition and plasma methods and thermal spray coating and coatings for composites Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Handbook of Feminist Family Studies Sally A. Lloyd, April L. Few, Katherine R. Allen, 2009-04-14 The Handbook of Feminist Family Studies presents the important theories methodologies and practices in feminist family studies The editors showcase feminist family scholarship providing both a retrospective and a prospective overview of the field and creating a scholarly forum for interpretation and dissemination of feminist work      Social Forces and Aging Robert C. Atchley, 1988      Social Gerontology Nancy R. Hooyman, H. Asuman Kiyak, 1993 Aging is a fact of life We see our parents and grandparents go through it We even see ourselves go through it As we get older we enter a distinct stage of life complete with its own biological issues and psychological and social ones too Yet most books on social aging ignore the psychological and biological aspects of aging that make the social issues so important This book provides a complete look at aging so that we can better understand the older stage of life for both ourselves and those around us This book presents a multidisciplinary perspective on social aging It takes the approach of the older person in context and how age related changes in the biological functional and psychological domains can influence the older person s interactions with his her social and physical environment Unique features include an original approach a multidisciplinary perspective a framework based on research findings and attention to differences by age gender ethnic minority status sexual orientation and socio economic class Social workers psychologists gerontology professionals and professors

Handbook on Ethical Issues in Aging Tanya F. Johnson, 1999-06-30 Contributors from fields including sociology anthropology theology medicine philosophy social work and law examine how specific issues surrounding ethics and aging have been and currently are perceived and implemented and pose new questions and solutions for ethical practice in aging in the future They touch on areas such as ethical issues in a subculturally diverse society spiritual care terminal care care of the judgement impaired mental health care family and non family care and long term care Also covered are research on aging and ethical issues in a high tech society Johnson teaches sociology at the University of Hawaii Hilo Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
