The Devil's Fruit Dvera I. Saxton, 2021-02-12 The Devil's Fruit uses anthropology's tool kit to examine farmworkers' embodiment of toxic pesticides and social and workplace relationships in California's agricultural industry Rather than stopping at description and critique Saxton explores how activist ethnographic methods and ethics align conflict and support ongoing struggles for farmworker health and environmental justice Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Selected Papers from the 5th International Symposium on Mycotoxins and Toxigenic Moulds: Challenges and Perspectives Sarah De Saeger, Siska Croubels, Kris

Audenaert, 2018-07-09 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Selected Papers from the 5th International Symposium on Mycotoxins and Toxigenic Moulds Challenges and Perspectives that was published in Toxins Dynamic Industrial Policy in Africa United Nations. Economic Commission for Africa, 2014 For millions of Africans growth is yet to translate into jobs and better living conditions Africa's largely commodity driven growth has not been matched by the much needed structural change that can lead to economic transformation employment and reduced poverty Market failures necessitate industrial policy interventions Yet in the absence of the right processes and institutions good industrial policies will fail Indeed weak institutions and poor policy design have hindered industrial policy This report gives a framework for getting the policy process right to foster industrialization It uses 11 country case studies to assess the critical ingredients for spurring industrialization innovative institutions effective processes and flexible mechanisms and structural transformation

Killing, Capture, Trade and Ape Conservation Arcus Foundation, 2021-04-29 An objective analysis of relevant issues and case studies to further the ape conservation agenda around killing capture and trade Latin American Economic Outlook 2016 Towards a New Partnership with China OECD, CAF Development Bank of Latin America, Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean, 2015-12-12 The Latin American Economic Outlook 2016 is devoted to the evolving relationship between Latin America and China as well as its prospects in the long term Solar, Wind and Land Troy A. Rule, 2014-09-19 The global demand for clean renewable energy has rapidly expanded in recent years and will likely continue to escalate in the decades to come Wind and solar energy systems often require large quantities of land and airspace so their growing presence is generating a diverse array of new and challenging land use conflicts Wind turbines can create noise disrupt views or radar systems and threaten bird populations Solar energy projects can cause glare effects impact pristine wilderness areas and deplete water resources Developers must successfully navigate through these and myriad other land use conflicts to complete any renewable energy project Policymakers are increasingly confronted with disputes over these issues and are searching for rules to effectively govern them Tailoring innovative policies to address the unique conflicts that arise in the context of renewable energy development is crucial to ensuring that the law facilitates rather than impedes the continued growth of this important industry This book describes and analyses the property and land use policy questions that most commonly arise in renewable energy development Although it focuses primarily on issues that have arisen within the United States the book s discussions of international policy differences and critiques of existing approaches make it a valuable resource for anyone exploring these issues in a professional setting anywhere in the world

Trade Liberalisation and Economic Development in Africa Gift Mugano,2021-09-30 This book provides a thorough and rigorous discussion on the impact of trade liberalisation on economic development with a special focus on the African continent The author presents the rationale for trade liberalisation trade liberalisation frameworks the trade liberalisation economic development nexus impediments to trade and contemporary issues of international trade In this book notwithstanding the benefits from trade liberalisation the author shows that African trade as a share of global trade has remained flat at 3% as in 1975 while the continent s exports have remained raw materials and its intra regional trade at less than 15% of total trade which is the lowest in the world UNCTAD 2020 With respect to key economic development indicators such as economic growth poverty levels and employment levels this book shows that ironically and in direct contrast with the conventional views that trade liberalisation alleviates poverty trade liberalisation in Africa has resulted in high levels of unemployment and low economic growth which ultimately lead to increased poverty In addition this book provides a detailed analysis of why trade liberalisation has failed to yield meaningful benefits to Africa The binding constraints and blockages which prevent positive spin offs on trade liberalisation in Africa are discussed in detail in this book In the same vein the author provides practical strategies which must be adopted by African countries in order to gain from trade liberalisation making this work a must read for African governments academia trade experts regional trading blocs the World Trade Organization and development partners In view of this and as part of the disruptive and structural transformation policies the author discusses case studies and international experience contextualised to Africa as well as strategies for addressing the trade related infrastructure gap production capacities export promotion and aid for trade

Global Soil Biodiversity Atlas European Commission. Joint Research Centre,2016 The Atlas describes soil as habitat for the diversity of organisms that live under our feet At the same time it draws attention to the threats to soil biodiversity such as invasive species pollution intensive land use practices or climate change The Atlas provides current solutions for a sustainable management of soils It was coordinated by the JRC and the Global Soil Biodiversity Initiative www.globalsoilbiodiversity.org with more than 70 contributing organisations and several hundred individual contributions It illustrates the diversity of soil organisms explains their geographical and temporal distribution the ecosystem functions and services provided by soil biota Most importantly it draws attention to the myriad of threats to soil biodiversity These include inappropriate land management practices e g deforestation land take for infrastructure development agricultural systems over grazing forest fires and poor water management both irrigation and drainage Other practices such as land conversion from grassland or forest to cropped land result in rapid loss of soil carbon which indirectly enhances global warming The Atlas shows that mismanaging soils could exacerbate the effects of climate change jeopardise agricultural production compromise the quality of ground water and worsen pollution It also proposes solutions to safeguard soil biodiversity through the development of policies that directly or indirectly target soil health leading to a more sustainable use
