The Guard of the Tree of Life, a Discourse on the Sacraments Samuel Bolton, 2012-10-17 This rare work by Bolton is what he calls a sacramental discourse on sanctifying God's name in the coming to and participation in particularly of the Lord's Supper though his exposition is applicable to any of God's ordinances From Leviticus 10:3 Bolton explains three key doctrines 1 That they who have anything to do with any ordinance of God draw near to God 2 That they who draw near to God in any ordinance must sanctify God in it 3 That if we do not sanctify God in an ordinance he will be sanctified on us Bolton makes application of how faith works how repentance works and how to have a holy reverence of God and his ordinances He shows there is obedience in being fruitful in attending God's ordinances and that the Christian should labor to see God glorifying fruit through the work of Jesus Christ and the power of the Spirit This is not a scan or facsimile has been updated in modern English for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions Boys' Life
