Economic Impacts of Intellectual Property-Conditioned

Government Incentives Dan Prud'homme,Hefa Song,2016-06-21 This book provides new insights into the economic impacts strategic objectives and legal structures of an emerging branch of government incentives conditioned on meeting intellectual property related requirements Despite becoming more common in recent years such incentives ranging from patent fee subsidies and patent box tax deductions to inventor remuneration schemes are still under researched A diverse range of analytical methods including econometric analyses case studies and comparative legal analysis are used to study these incentives in countries in Europe and China Scholars policymakers and practitioners can benefit from the conceptual and practical insights as well as policy recommendations provided

Quantitative indicators for country-level innovation ecosystems Michael Quinn Hogan,Michael P. Gallaher,2018-05-20 Innovation has been shown to be a key factor in determining a country's competitiveness and economic growth potential Through investments in education and research and development many developing countries have tried to avoid the middle income trap of stagnation by working to create high value employment opportunities To better understand country level readiness to innovate we have compiled a set of publicly available data indicators and created a data tool to illustrate innovation capabilities and infrastructure by country Our approach builds on and advances existing national innovation metrics by constructing transparent publicly sourced indicators that emphasize changes over time and interrelationships between different indicators as opposed to creating simple indices across groups of indicators This occasional paper is targeted to an applied audience explaining the methods used to assemble the data an overview of the indicators practical applications of the data summary statistics and data limitations The data are not intended to be a tool for providing answers about innovation but rather a starting point for future work including market landscaping country level diagnostics and qualitative protocols for research
