

Parts of a POWERFUL Argument:

Claim: Statement writer is trying to prove is true.

Argument: Statement supporting the claim by giving reasons.
(Show through your introduction paragraph in your thesis statement.)

↳ Evidence: Proof and facts from sources.

↳ Explanation: Explain what the evidence proves.

↳ SO What? What does the evidence and explanation show about the claim?

Counter claim

①

↳ statement opposing claim/the other side.

↳ OBJECTIVE TONE:
No Personal Prejudices

②

Rebuttal

↳ reason why counter-claim is not as strong as claim.

↳ FORMAL TONE:
Serious

Conclusion: restate claim, summarize: argument, counter-claim, rebuttal and make a recommendation.

The Nonfiction Now Lesson Bank, Grades 4-8 Nancy Akhavan, 2014-02-04 What exactly makes The Nonfiction NOW Lesson Bank such a stand out If you consider the amount of instructional support that alone is substantial enough to transform your teaching But Nancy Akhavan happens to be an educator who has performed many roles over her career so she divests in this book just about everything in her professional vault A whole new vision of teaching nonfiction 50 powerhouse lessons A bank of short informational texts Dozens of student practice activities Graphic organizers for taming textbooks Unlike so many books this one will live its life in actual use dog eared sticky noted and loved Writing Is Magic, Or Is It? Using Mentor Texts to Develop the Writer's Craft Mary McMackin, Jennifer M. Bogard, 2015-01-01 Students must study what accomplished authors have written and practice the styles approaches or methods they employ in order to become proficient writers The practical standards based book dives deeply into the genres of poetry narrative fiction narrative nonfiction informative explanatory and opinion argument Using close reading of mentor texts analysis of specific writing strategies in those texts and the application of those strategies in the student s own writing students will be equipped for any type of writing

Keeping Score for All National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Center for Education, Board on Testing and Assessment, Committee on Participation of English Language Learners and Students with Disabilities in NAEP and Other Large-Scale Assessments, 2004-10-02 U S public schools are responsible for educating large numbers of English language learners and students with disabilities This book considers policies for including students with disabilities and English language learners in assessment programs It also examines the research findings on testing accommodations and their effect on test performance Keeping Score for All discusses the comparability of states policies with each other and with the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP policies and explores the impact of these differences on the interpretations of NAEP results The book presents a critical review of the research literature and makes suggestions for future research to evaluate the validity of test scores obtained under accommodated conditions The book concludes by proposing a new framework for conceptualizing accommodations This framework would be useful both for policymakers test designers and practitioners in determining appropriate accommodations for specific assessments and for researchers in planning validity studies

Handbook of Formative Assessment in the Disciplines Heidi L. Andrade, Randy E. Bennett, Gregory J. Cizek, 2019-05-14 The Handbook of Formative Assessment in the Disciplines meaningfully addresses current developments in the field offering a unique and timely focus on domain dependency Building from an updated definition of formative assessment the book covers the integration of measurement principles into practice the operationalization of formative assessment within specific domains beyond generic strategies evolving research directions including student involvement and self regulation and new approaches to the challenges of incorporating formative assessment training into pre service and in service educator training As supporters of large scale testing programs increasingly consider the potential of formative assessments to improve teaching and learning this handbook advances the subject through novel frameworks intersections of theory research and practice and attention to discernible disciplines Written for instructors graduate students researchers and policymakers each chapter provides expert perspectives on the procedures and evaluations that enable teachers to adapt teaching and learning in process toward student achievement
