

Alliteration

The repetition of the first letter (or sound) within a group of words.

An alliteration doesn't need to be an entire sentence to be effective, a two-word phrase can work too!

Examples:

Peter picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Sally sells seashells by the seashore.

Mary made magnificent muffins on Monday.

Dunkin Donuts

Coca Cola

The Alliteration of Chaucer Charles Flint McClumpha,1888    Poems about the Natural World Evan Voboril,2015-04-09
This book invites the reader to jump into a selection of poems about the natural world written by people from different places and times It gives the reader the keys needed to unlock poems It equips the reader to explore the meanings that a poem has and it explains the techniques poets use to create their effects

Chapters on alliterative verse; a dissertation in candidature for the degree of D.Lit John Lawrence,1892    Natural Spectaculars Michiel Meeusen,Luc Van der Stockt,2015-11-17 The value of Plutarch s perception of physical reality and his attitude towards the natural spectacle Plutarch was very interested in the natural world around him not only in terms of its elementary composition and physical processes but also with respect to its providential ordering and marvels His writings teach us a lot about his perception of physical reality and about his attitude to the natural spectacle He found his greatest inspiration in the ontological and epistemological framework of Plato s Timaeus but a wide range of other authors were also of seminal interest to his project Moreover the highly literary value of Plutarch s natural philosophical writings should not be underrated It is therefore not surprising that recently scholars have started to reassess the ancient scientific value of Plutarch s natural philosophical writings Natural Spectaculars aims to give further impetus to this dynamic by treating several aspects of Plutarch s natural philosophy which have remained unexplored up to now

Language, Literature and Translation in Malaysia and Indonesia Hasuria Che Omar,Wan Rose Eliza Abdul Rahman,Rudi Hartono, This book delves into the shared sociocultural fabric of Malaysia and Indonesia exploring language literature and translation within these nations It fills a critical gap in current discussions offering a comprehensive resource for students researchers and language professionals By fostering multidisciplinary dialogues it aims to enhance understanding between the two nations With a focus on the dual role of translation as both a subject of study and a tool for communication this book serves as a key guide for those interested in the dynamic linguistic landscapes of Malaysia and Indonesia

The Poetics of National and Racial Identity in Nineteenth-Century American Literature John D. Kerkering,2003-12-11 John D Kerkering s study examines the literary history of racial and national identity in nineteenth century America Kerkering argues that writers such as DuBois Lanier Simms and Scott used poetic effects to assert the distinctiveness of certain groups in a diffuse social landscape Kerkering explores poetry s formal properties its sound effects as they intersect with the issues of race and nation He shows how formal effects ranging from meter and rhythm to alliteration and melody provide these writers with evidence of a collective identity whether national or racial Through this shared reliance on formal literary effects national and racial identities Kerkering shows are related elements of a single literary history This is the story of how poetic effects helped to define national identities in Anglo America as a step toward helping to define racial identities within the United States This highly original study will command a wide audience of Americanists Plain Living and High Thinking, Or, Practical Self-culture, Moral, Mental and Physical W.H.
