Theorizing Colonial Cinema Nayoung Aimee Kwon, Takushi Odagiri, Moonim Baek, 2022-02 Theorizing Colonial Cinema is a millennial retrospective on the entangled intimacy between film and colonialism from film s global inception to contemporary legacies in and of Asia The volume engages new perspectives by asking how prior discussions on film form theory history and ideology may be challenged by centering the colonial question rather than relegating it to the periphery To that end contributors begin by excavating little known archives and perspectives from the colonies as a departure from a prevailing focus on Europe s imperial histories and archives about the colonies The collection pinpoints various forms of devaluation and misrecognition both in and beyond the region that continue to relegate local voices to the margins This pathbreaking study on global film history advances prior scholarship by bringing together an array of established and new interdisciplinary voices from film studies Asian studies and postcolonial studies to consider how the present is continually haunted by the colonial past Winner of the SCMS Best Edited Collection Award Video Source Book, 2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction Release Print, 1996 Video Source Book Gale Group, 1999-10-28 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction New West, 1978 Numismatist and Year Book, 1976 Vols 24 52 include the proceedings of the A N A convention 1911 39 The New York Times Index, 2006
