After establishing the distinction between fiction which demands a willing suspension of disbelief and non fiction which is set in the universe of the pupils experience succeeding chapters set out the benefits for the teaching of literature namely how it encompasses psychology history and aesthetics It fulfils the Horatian demand profit and delight After addressing the pedagogic assets and liabilities of various theories of the concept of text what lies at the heart of the book is how teachers tackle their role in guiding and inspiring without pontificating The invitation to the student is to co operate constructively but not uncritically Issues of interpretation and the passing on of interpretative paradigms are alerted to which leads naturally on to the pedagogic challenge of explaining the potentialities of different genres and the necessity of a firm grounding in technical terms like composition style theme metaphor etc as didactic tools A concluding chapter suggests criteria that may make value and evaluation rest on strong foundations in acknowledgement of the subjective elements inherent in the literary experience namely to avoid making literary analysis a schematic formula and to ensure that it promotes the expansion of the students humanistic horizon This book is essential reading for all those involved in teaching Literature and Language
