to the Court of Justice of the European Union and Effective Judicial Protection Clelia Lacchi,2020-09-09 The preliminary reference procedure under Article 267 TFEU is the keystone of the EU judicial system and its legal order Based on a dialogue between the Court of Justice and national courts it is strictly linked to the protection of the rights that individuals derive from EU law This book focuses on this procedure from the perspective of the right to effective judicial protection in light of Article 19 1 second subparagraph TEU and Article 47 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU It explores the level of protection that is ensured to individuals in order to access to the Court of Justice through preliminary references on the validity of EU acts and on the interpretation of EU law The book offers a threefold perspective on preliminary references through an analysis of the case law of the Court of Justice itself of the European Court of Human Rights in relation to Article 6 1 ECHR and of the constitutional courts of Austria Croatia Czech Republic Germany Slovakia Slovenia and Spain where the national courts refusals to refer can lead to the violation of national constitutional rights It further investigates the obligations for Member States and national courts in the framework of the preliminary reference procedure and how the right to effective judicial protection affects them The examination outlines the implications that could flow from the recognition of a right for individuals to have a question referred to the ECJ as part of the right to effective judicial protection under EU law in particular its nature and its enforcement Building upon the existing system of sanctions for the violations of the obligation to submit a preliminary question the book advances some proposals to rethink the current system of remedies Teacher Quality and Teacher Education Quality Nicholas Michelli,Robin Dada,Deborah

Eldridge,Rana Tamim,Karen Karp,2016-10-14 Accreditation of teacher education programs is increasingly embraced internationally and is being modeled after the American experience despite criticisms from some in the field of teacher education in the United States This book examines the transformation of accreditation and the interest and perception of nations and regions choosing to use the model in their own culture including the Middle East and Gulf Region South America and the United Kingdom Its distinctive edge is the juxtaposition of three sectors quality assurance accreditation teacher preparation and global international experiences The authors address how the adoption of a universal requirement for accreditation embraces a particular view of what teacher quality means The emphasis on the development of teacher preparation in concert with accreditation is of academic interest to scholars in the United States and abroad The experiences and voices of teacher educators as international colleagues in a global climate of accountability brings a fresh perspective on shared challenges National Fax Directory ,1993
