The 9/11 Commission Report National Commission on Terrorist Attacks upon the United States, Thomas H. Kean, Lee Hamilton, 2004-07 Final report of the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks upon the United States National Security Issues Daniel D. Pegarkov, 2006 The 9/11 terrorist attacks have sparked a wildfire of debates. There are several issues that serve as the source of these debates but they are all based on one of two common concerns either the balance of power between the people and the U.S. government or the efficiency of the nation's security resources. How far should the government be able to infringe upon the people's constitutional rights to expression, privacy, religious worship, etc. to ensure the safety of its people? And how far will the people be willing to let those rights be infringed upon if they are even aware that they exist? It is a strange dichotomy that is ironic when one considers that the war on terrorism is being fought in the name of freedom. The other concern was born from questions of whether or not 9/11 could have been prevented and if more lives could have been saved during the tragedy if the nation's security infrastructure was better organised. This book examines these various issues and debates

They're Not Listening Ryan James Girdusky, Harlan Hill, 2020-06-16 The election of Donald Trump in America and the referendum on European Union membership in the United Kingdom otherwise known as Brexit sent shockwaves throughout the world. Cosmopolitan elites across the globe never saw this populist uprising coming and still do not understand it. People across the globe have been increasingly voting for national populist politicians over the last twenty years. The current nationalist populist revolt started long before Donald Trump came down his golden escalator and even before Prime Minister David Cameron agreed to hold a referendum vote on the EU. It wasn't isolated to rundown towns in Northern England or the Midwest and it wasn't solely because of demographic changes, ignorance, intolerance, or a whitelash. It was occurring because the elites chose to ignore voters' concerns when it came to globalism and neoliberalism. Issues like mass immigration, war, economic inequality, and national sovereignty were sacrosanct to neoliberals and ultimately their unwillingness to concede on these issues built discontent among millions of people

A Ticking Time Bomb United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, 2011 The 9/11 Commission: Proceedings and Analysis James Holbein, 2005-01-30 In the years since the terrorist attacks of 9/11, government officials, industry experts, and interested citizens have sought to understand what happened, why it happened, and how we can prevent anything similar from ever happening again. Now in four volumes, readers and researchers can read for themselves the
