Agric Paper Grade 1 november 2013:

Failure to Flourish Clare Huntington, 2014-05-20 Exploring the connection between families and inequality Failure to Flourish How Law Undermines Family Relationships argues that the legal regulation of families stands fundamentally at odds with the needs of families Strong stable positive relationships are essential for both individuals and society to flourish but from transportation policy to the criminal justice system and from divorce rules to the child welfare system the legal system makes it harder for parents to provide children with these kinds of relationships exacerbating the growing inequality in America Failure to Flourish contends that we must re orient the legal system to help families avoid crises and when conflicts arise intervene in a manner that heals relationships To understand how wrong our family law system has gone and what we need to repair it Failure to Flourish takes us from ancient Greece to cutting edge psychological research and from the chaotic corridors of local family courts to a quiet revolution under way in how services are provided to families in need Incorporating the latest insights of positive psychology and social science research the book sets forth a new more emotionally intelligent vision for a legal system that not only resolves conflict but actively encourages the healthy relationships that are at the core of a stable society Wallace's Farmer, 2013 The Geography of South Africa

Jasper Knight, Christian M. Rogerson, 2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South Health of People, Places and Planet Colin D. Butler, Jane Dixon, Anthony G. Capon, 2015-07-31 This book has three main goals The first is to celebrate the work of a great public health figure the late A J Tony McMichael 1942 2014 The second is to position contemporary public health issues in an interdisciplinary context and in ways that highlight the interdependency between the environment human institutions and behaviours a broad approach championed by Tony The third is to encourage emerging and future public health leaders to advocate for policies and cultural change to sustain and improve human health from a foundation of objective scholarship The book's foreword and 38 chapters were written by people who were inspired by Tony many of whom worked with him at some point in the last 40 years Its structure reflects five major public health domains each of which Tony made major contributions to in an extremely productive academic life occupational health and safety environmental and social epidemiology nutrition and food systems climate change and health and ecosystem change and infectious disease The final section Transformation is dedicated to Tony's desire for public health scientists to propose adaptive and mitigating solutions to the problems they were observing Each section contains at least one key publication involving Tony There is also a selection of artworks from an exhibition which formed part of the conference held to honour Tony at The Australian National University in 2012 This conference formed the first part of Tony s festschrift completed by this book
