Artist As Guide Practical Supporting Yourself:

Supporting Yourself as an Artist Deborah A. Hoover, 1985 With all the resources available to assist them why do most of the one million working artists in America lack the support they need for their creative work In Supporting Yourself as an Artist Deborah Hoover a successful arts administrator argues that the missing link is information not only about where artists resources are but about what they are and how to tap into them This unique guide outlines a step by step approach by which artists can develop a critical network of individuals organizations and information resources that will enable them to support themselves well as artists Based on eight years of research during which she interviewed more than 100 artists nationwide and on her own experience as arts administrator and fundraiser Hoover illustrates how artists have obtained free or low cost contributions of everything from printing services to tax assistance She includes first hand accounts from corporate representatives patrons of the arts arts administrators and artists themselves people who are anxious and willing to help artists find adequate means of support More than just another list of funding sources Supporting Yourself as an Artist helps artists develop procedures for identifying the right funding source for a specific project for writing proposals requesting funds by phone or in person dealing positively with rejection and much much more Each page is filled with practical easy to use information for painters filmmakers poets playwrights artists of every kind Whether you live in New York Portland or Austin if you are an artist supporting yourself by your art you will find this an invaluable resource to be used time and again in your career I only wish that this had been written sooner It s a life sustaining consomme rich but transparently clear An essential aid for financial muddleheads like me Richard Leacock Filmmaker This book is the artist s best guide to creating funding opportunities It helps artists see how they can be as creative in funding their work as in making their work This guide also provides a larger vision for funding artists that all arts administrators will find useful Anne Hawley Executive Director Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities An excellent job It s comprehensive lively well written and filled with information available nowhere else It should be required reading for every artist and every person who is concerned with the support of individual artists Starr Ockenga Photographer A practical handbook on how to survive as an independent artist Contains solid easy to use information on everything from getting funds to getting help on taxes to getting free equipment Based on interviews with more than 100 practicing artists plus the author s own extensive experience as the director of MIT s innovative program for the arts About the Author Deborah A Hoover formerly Executive Director of the Council for the Arts at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology is now a cultural advisor to the Gambian government Supporting Yourself as an Artist Deborah A.
