Ash Road Text Classics:

Ash Road Ivan Southall, 2013-09-25 The best selling Ash Road is an action packed adventure story so evocative of rural Australia you can taste the Eucalyptus It's hot dry and sweaty on Ash Road where Graham Harry and Wallace are getting their first taste of independence camping just the three of them When they accidentally light a bushfire no one would have guessed how far it would go All along Ash Road fathers go off to fight the fires and mothers help in the first aid centres The children of Prescott are left alone presumed safe until it's the fire itself that reaches them These children are forced to face a major crisis with only each other and the two old men left in their care Ivan Southall was the first Australian author to receive the Carnegie Medal and was awarded the Australian Children's Book Council Book of the Year on three occasions An icon of Australian children's literature he wrote over sixty books in his lifetime and has been published in twenty three different countries He died in 2008

Memoirs of Many in One Patrick White, 2019-06-04 An essential late novel from one of the foremost novelists of the twentieth century now a part of the Text Classics series

A Dutiful Daughter Thomas

Keneally, 2019-04-02 Australian literature's strangest novel written by its most familiar novelist

Fishing in the Styx Ruth

Park, 2019-03-05 Following on from A Fence Around the Cuckoo this is the second volume of autobiography by one of Australia's best storytellers Ruth Park author of The Harp in the South and the Miles Franklin winning Swords and Crowns and Rings

I for Isobel Amy Witting, 2014-01-29 Winner of the Barbara Ramsden Prize 1990 This was life no sooner had you built yourself your little raft and felt secure than it came to pieces under you and you were swimming again Born into a world without welcome Isobel observes it as warily as an alien trying to pass for a native Her collection of imaginary friends includes the Virgin Mary and Sherlock Holmes Later she meets Byron W H Auden and T S Eliot Isobel is not so much at ease with the flesh and blood people she meets and least of all with herself until a lucky encounter and a little detective work reveal her identity and her true situation in life I for Isobel a modern day Australian classic was followed by Isobel on the Way to the Corner Shop winner of the Age Book of the Year Award Amy Witting was born in Annandale an inner suburb of Sydney in 1918 She attended Sydney University then taught French and English in state schools Beginning late in life she published six novels including The Visit I for Isobel Isobel on the Way to the Corner Shop and Maria's War two collections of short stories two books of verse Travel Diary and Beauty is the Straw and her Collected Poems When we come to write the history of Australian writing in the twentieth century the strange case of Amy Witting will be there to haunt us Here is a writer who not only has great gifts the kind of expert and mimetic gifts that would impel instant recognition from someone who admired a fine lined American naturalist like William Maxwell but a realist who has an effortless immediacy and a compelling sense of drama that should have ensured the widest kind of appeal the sort of appeal that Helen Garner could command in her fiction writing days And yet this woman who published in the New Yorker and commanded the respect of Kenneth Slessor was scarcely encouraged during the long grey sleep of Australian fiction publishing It wasn't until the publication of I for Isobel that Witting gained a national profile Peter Craven Australia s Amy Witting is comparable to Jean Rhys but she has more starch or vinegar The effect is bracing New Yorker Isobel is instinctively searching for a lost part of her substance the very memory of which has been obliterated Prompted by her inexplicable sense of loss she goes on her way deviating baffled yet rejecting substitutes To call the ending happy is to say both too much and too little Was the lost part also searching for her Amy Witting s admirers will find this novel as distinctive and compelling as her stories and her poetry Jessica Anderson Witting lays bare with surgical precision the dynamics of families sibling students in coffee shops office coteries One sometimes feels positively winded with unsettling insights There is something relentless almost unnerving in her anatomising of foibles fears obsessions private shame the nature of loneliness the nature of panic Janette Turner Hospital A beautifully but unobtrusively honed style a marvellous ear for dialogue a generous understanding of the complex waywardness of men and women Andrew Riemer Terrific incredibly wise When I finished it I went straight back to the first page Cate Kennedy Nelson Thornes Framework English Skills in Fiction 1 Geoff Reilly, Wendy Wren, 2002 A comprehensive Grade 6 9 English scheme that reflects National Literacy Strategy priorities by spanning both non fiction and fiction text types in twin student books Nelson Thornes Framework English equips your department with complete reassurance The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1911 Classical and Modern Literature ,1992

Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 British Books ,1911 The Publisher ,1911 Hills End Ivan Southall,2013-05-22 First published in 1962 Hills End is regarded as a turning point in Australian children s literature paving the way for much subsequent Australian adventure fiction On a fateful day in Hills End a timber milling town in the mountains of Victoria seven children and their teacher set off to explore caves in the nearby mountains said to contain ancient Aboriginal rock art While they are deep inside the mountain caves a storm of tremendous violence all but sweeps the town away and threatens to leave them stranded on the mountain Tackling flooded creeks and washed out paths and fallen trees the children make their way back to Hills End injured and exhausted only to face a new battle to survive in the denuded town Ivan Southall was the first Australian author to receive the Carnegie Medal and was awarded the Australian Children s Books Council Book of the Year on three occasions He wrote over 60 books in his lifetime and has been published in 23 different countries He died in 2008 textclassics com au The author has the power to get inside his characters and through them express his faith in human nature in the goodness of man a solid work strong in action mood and discipline New York Times A book that has haunted me for years Ramona Koval By the Book I would highly recommend this novel for both children and adults as the vivid imagery which Southall creates is something which is not as prominent in today s literature I believe that it is important for young people to read books like this as they encourage a love for the written word something which is often neglected these days ReadPlus review blog The Journal of Education ,1893 Australian Children's Books: 1973-1988 Marcie Muir,Kerry White,1992 Volume two of a reference work listing all children s books by Australians

This volume covers the period from 1973 to 1988 Entries provide physical descriptions dates publishers illustrations awards received and in some cases remarks on the content Entries are arranged by author Title and illustrator indexes are included
