Agric Zimsec Exam Time 2014

Hifikepunye Lucas Pohamba, Namibia.
Office of the President

Agric Zimsec Exam Time 2014:

Environmental Resilience Percy Toriro, Innocent Chirisa, 2021-05-21 This book discusses the production distribution regulatory and management frameworks that affect food in urban settings. It plugs a gap in knowledge especially in the sub Saharan Africa region where food despite its critical importance has been ignored as a determinant of success in the planning and management of cities and towns. The various chapters in the book demonstrate how urban populations in Zimbabwe and elsewhere have often devised ways to produce own food to supplement on their incomes. Food is produced largely by way of urban agriculture or imported from the countryside and sold in both formal and informal stores and stalls. The book shows how in spite of the important space food occupies in the lives of all city residents the planning and regulatory framework does not facilitate the better performance of food systems

Global Perspectives on Building Resilience for Sustainable Rural Development

Yuheng Li, 2025-10-31 The book brings together rural scholars from the Global North and the Global South who have contributed chapters based on their own contexts. The book aims to provide a general picture of how rural communities are responding to challenges in a global context. This general picture can be presented through three specific research questions namely 1. What is the socio economic status of rural development in the country? This research question tends to explore the socio economic status of rural development in the contributor's country or in the country of study. It highlights the challenges to sustainable rural development in the country. 2. How are rural communities responding to these challenges? This research question focuses on analysing how rural communities are responding to challenges such as depopulation, spatial compression, economic marginalisation and climate change. 3. How can rural resilience to risks and future challenges be built? This research question aims to discuss possible approaches and actions to build rural resilience to current challenges and to seek transformation to better cope with and adapt to future challenges and unexpected risks. The target audience of this book is researchers, postgraduate students and government officials in the field of rural and agricultural development. Readers can expect to gain a basic knowledge of rural resilience, a deeper understanding of rural development around the world and different approaches to building resilience to challenges and shocks

Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure, 2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe. It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author's excavations with native concepts and philosophies. Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape. In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology. Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students, graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe. The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies, African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology     Water Footprints and Sustainable Development Suhaib A. Bandh,Fayaz A. Malla,2024-08-09 Water Footprints and Sustainable Development serves as the sole comprehensive volume of the role of waste management for sustainable development It provides an overview of Global Scenario of water footprints in water smart cities and technologies and investigates the critical factors that enable the sustainable developments of various industries in respect to water resources management The goal of this book is to introduce the reader to the current technologies used for reducing water footprints and to offer the necessary information and tools for sustainable development Provides detailed coverage of the role of Water Energy and Food Nexus with respect to sustainability Covers methods such as lifecycle assessment sustainability assessment multi criteria decision making and multi objective optimization modes Includes key techniques for water resources management and sustainable development     Tonga Livelihoods in Rural Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker,Joshua Matanzima,2022-12-15 Based on extensive original fieldwork this book examines the complex and diverse livelihoods of Zimbabwe s Tonga people as they have developed over time including in the wake of the country s post 2000 political and economic crises Despite being endowed with natural resources the northwest region of Zimbabwe inhabited by the Tonga people is one of the most marginalised and underdeveloped parts of the country neglected by both colonial and postcolonial governments The Tonga speaking people are a minority ethnic group that settled on either side of the Zambezi River around 1100 AD and remain deeply dependent on the river for their socio economic livelihoods This book reflects on the challenges faced by the Tonga people from poor infrastructure health and education facilities to the issues caused by soil infertility and extremely low rainfall which have been exacerbated by climate change Many Tonga people were displaced by the construction of the Kariba Dam in the 1950s and their access to the region s natural resources has been restricted by successive governments Showcasing the research of Zimbabwean scholars in particular this book not only reflects on the vulnerabilities faced by the Tonga but it also looks beyond these to the livelihood practices that are thriving despite these challenges and the ways in which livelihoods intertwine with Tonga culture and society more broadly Overall this book highlights the resilience of the Tonga people in the face of years of politico economic crisis and will be an important contribution to research on livelihoods ethnic minorities and rural development in Africa     Fostering Long-Term Sustainable Development in Africa David Mhlanga,Mufaro Dzingirai,2024-08-31 This book provides a broad and insightful guide to the economic social and environmental concerns seen within Africa It highlights the central economic challenges faced by African countries and outlines ways in which long term sustainable development in Africa can be achieved A particular focus is given to issues of poverty inequality and unemployment and how poor infrastructure limited healthcare and education and environmental deterioration are exacerbating these issues By looking at the limited effectiveness of traditional development initiatives a new framework for economic development is presented that focuses on community ownership and long term sustainability and which acknowledges the history of colonisation economic exploitation and political instability that has held Africa back in the past This book takes hope from countries within the Global South that have moved towards sustainable development and sets out ways in which other countries can follow them It will be relevant to students researchers and policymakers interested in development and environmental economics World Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Abstracts ,2000 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism
